

LOCALS.

Gloves at 1008 O street.

Don't forget the last debate.

Go to Rector's for your hot soda.

O. H. Allen ate turkey in Wabash.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

See Dr. Hodgman for first-class dental work at very low prices.

Notice the ad. on upper half of page next to front reading matter.

Dr. O. F. Lambertson, dentist. Special rates to students. 1207 O street.

Go to the Glove store 1008 O street, the best and the cheapest.

Miss Fossler was seen about the University during the Thanksgiving vacation.

The third program of Professor Williams' pupils occurs at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium this evening. Whoever goes is sure to enjoy a treat.

John Peter Cameron is no slouch as a foot-ball umpire. Ask the Sophs and Freshies.

All students who desire to drink only the latest drinks will go to Rector's, corner 12th and N streets.

The best quality regulation drill gloves are 10c at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115, 1117 O street.

Miss Etta V. Smoyer entertained a few of her most intimate friends at her rooms, Thanksgiving night.

Professor De Alton Saunders, B. Sc. Uni. and now in Lincoln high school, visited several days recently in Nebraska City.

Several of the Senior boys, Messrs. Rhodes, Newbranch, L. B. Pillsbury, Lien and McGuffey ate Thanksgiving dinner with the Abbott boys.

Skating was good last Friday and a number of Uni. students betook themselves with their runners in hand to Burlington beach and Lincoln park.

THE HESPERIAN is glad to announce to its readers that the health of Professor Ingersoll is improving under the influence of Colorado climate.

All the old students have returned to their old boarding place, 1029 R. Why don't you try the same place? Students club, $2.25 a week.

Now is the time to buy Holiday Goods at E. Fleming's, 1224 O street. Special prices. Ladies' Solid Gold 14 Karat case, with Elgin movement, for $20.00.

A great many students availed themselves of the opportunity last Friday night to hear the noted agnostic, Ingersoll. When Bob roasted sectarian schools the applause was deafening.

You can buy a good fountain pen at Herpolsheimers & Co's book department for $1.00. Pencils, note books, dictionaries and translations, as well as college supplies in general are lower in price than anywhere else in Lincoln.

Prof. W. G. L. Taylor heard his Monday classes in full uniform. You see his classes meet in the library building—so he wore his overcoat, fur cap, and double wool lined mittens. "Pile on more coal, oh Stokers."

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean are both honorary members of the class of '96. The chancellor said he felt too old to follow the precedent of Chancellor Canfield and connect himself with 1900.

George Town, assistant principal of the Humboldt high school, spent Thanksgiving with his parents in East Lincoln. Mr. Town tells us he is very pleasantly located and enjoys his school work very much indeed.

Big Martin, as he is usually known, who was president of the Bryan-Holcomb club last year, hove into sight for turkey. If you saw him kicking himself you may know the reason was that he was in town Friday but didn't know anything about the Union feed.