

make others merry. The gathering broke up with a good-night song, and the usual overflow of society and University spirit.

Immediately after holidays the Delians will open their new hall—by that time completely furnished—with an alumni program. Already several prominent men of the state, Alumni of the society, have promised to appear on the program. The society is doing better and more enthusiastic work than ever before.

LOCALS.

Gloves at 1008 O street.

Gloves at 1008 O street.

Go to Rector's for your hot soda.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

The chancellor will speak at Aurora, Neb., Saturday.

Miss Conklin will spend the holidays in Chicago.

Patronize Westerfield. He is up to date on hair cutting.

Go to the Glove store 1008 O street, the best and the cheapest.

See Dr. Hodgman for first-class dental work at very low prices.

Notice the ad. on upper half of page next to front reading matter.

Bob Hale was taking in the new library building Saturday before last.

Dr. O. F. Lambertson, dentist. Special rates to students. 1207 O street.

Dental parlors of Dr. Hodgman over Harley's. Reduced price to students.

Why not subscribe for THE HESPERIAN at once? Subscription only $1 per year.

All students who desire to drink only the latest drinks will go to Rector's, corner 12th and N streets.

The best quality regulation drill gloves are 10c at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115, 1117 O street.

All of the newest and latest novelties in neckwear will be found at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115-1117 O street.

For the cleanest and best made up clothing that are fitters, go to the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115-1117 O street.

Harvey Heald, having completed all his required work, has returned to his home at Osceola to rusticate till commencement time.

All the old students have returned to their old boarding place, 1029 R. Why don't you try the same place? Students club, $2.25 a week.

Now is the time to buy Holiday Goods at E. Fleming's, 1224 O street. Special prices. Ladies' Solid Gold 14 Karat case, with Elgin movement, for $20.00.

The visit of Mr. Marshall last Sunday was thoroughly enjoyed by all who heard his address, and will long be a pleasant spot in the memories of the two associations.

Professor Fossler will read a paper entitled "Goethe's Philosophy," before the first annual meeting of the Central Modern Language Conference at the University of Chicago, December 30.

Frey & Frey, florists, with Sutton & Hollowbush, Funke Opera House block. There's where you get your A. Beauty roses and carnations. All decorations at lowest prices. Give us a call.

The debaters against Kansas have received the question to be discussed at the joint contest, "Resolved, that the imitative and referendum as provided by the law of Switzerland should be introduced into our system of government."

The work carried on by the Mission Study class is very interesting. This class is under the direction of the joint missionary committee (Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.) and meets on Saturday at 11 a. m. in room 5. After the holidays, the subject of oriental religions will be taken up. This will be instructive in many ways, even to those not interested in missionary work. A cordial invitation to join this class is extended to all. The expense is very slight.