

H. O. Sutton now carries the Pall. slate.

A University McKinley club has been organized.

Westerfield has done the students barbering for seventeen years.

Mr. Johnson has 133 students registered for Virgil this year.

Mr. Kulhman's example of an agreeable, definitely, experiential word—marriage.

If you want the best barber shop in the city, go to Westerfield's, 117 N 13th. just South of the Lansing.

Bench work still flourishes but, has been abandoned by some for the more popular Library work.

The number of interesting stories at the Delian Society, Friday evening was a pleasant diversion.

A large number of Palladian Alumni and old members are expected back next week to attend the celebration.

Many fair co-eds have followed the advice of one of our faculty and are lending inspiration to the foot ball players.

The State Y. W. C. A. convention meets in Y. M. C. A. building from Friday to Sabbath of this week.

The Delians elected Mr. Emerson to the place of Mr. P. H. Thomson as representative in the Building Association.

The boys talk Free Silver incessantly. They even corner the Profs. and compell them to talk before they can get away.

The United Presbyterians will give a reception to students, Friday evening, October 9th at the home of Mrs. Graham 2525 R street.

If Bryan is elected, R. S. Baker has been promised the city P. O. as a reward for his manly labors in a noble cause. Mr. Baker is now ready to confer with any one wishing a courtesy in his line.

Try the home-like cooking at Boomer's club.

Unions were treated to an exceptionally good program Friday evening.

The old students go to Westerfield's. You should do the same, if you want the best hair cut in the city.

Still they come. Both ladies and gentlemen will find excellent board at 524 N 12th street, Boomer's club.

Gus Rose has returned for work late in the day and complains that he has great difficulty in getting to a 9 o'clock class.

Mr. Corey, in behalf of the Palladians, extended an invitation to the Delians to attend the exercises in connection with their 25th anniversary, October 15th.

Prof. Fossler has taken a division of the beginning German class in order to relieve the crowded condition. This makes six classes in beginning German.

The chances are good that D. W. Livingston, of the class of '96 laws, will be one of our state law makers this year. He is the popocratic candidate for the legislature with the chances in his favor.

S. W. Pinkerton was awakened about midnight last Saturday by burglars in the hall. Pinkerton promptly shooed the miscreants out, made every thing secure and slept as soundly the remainder of the night as if nothing had happened.

The University Bryan club, recently organized, gave its first "public" last Saturday evening, in a street parade. The column, headed by the flag marched south on eleventh street to O. The Salvation Army was marching West on O when the boys got that far, and so by a "column right" the boys fell in at the rear of the Army and marched up the street with it. In the meantime the disciples of Bryan rent the air with yells and songs that almost drowned the Salvation horn and drum.