

Classes were small Monday, those who were not interested in the Bryan parade, skipped classes on general principles.

French, Latin, German and English dictionaries, Rolf and text Shakespear translations etc. at Herpolsheimer & Co.

A reception will be given by the Y. W. C. A. to all girls of the Uni. at the home of Mrs. F. M. Hall, 11th and D streets, Nov. 14.

It is hoped that the frigid looks with which students of different political parties view each other will be thawed by the election returns.

The Delians held a business meeting last Friday evening after the program in the chapel and decided that their rights should not be trampled upon.

The society slate has suffered greatly during the last few weeks. We trust that it will soon be patronized with as much zeal as before the political strife.

It is hoped that the low prices at the Uni. lunch room will relieve any who have been under the necessity (?) of helping themselves to their neighbor's lunches.

We are headquarters for fountain pens We sell them and guarantee them—from 69c to $5 each. If our pens are not satisfactory we will return you your money.

Junior Annual.

Remember that the business managers of the Junior Annual board offer prizes for the best stories and poems written by students for the Annual. All students who can write are urged to compete.

The stories must not contain more than four thousand words; and three type-written copies of each story and poem must be handed to Miss Jean Tuttle before Jan. 15th, 1897. The author's name must be enclosed in a sealed envelope which has the subject of the story or poem written on the out side.

For other specifications see Miss Tuttle.

First class shaves and hair cuts for sale at Westerfields.

It supplies a long felt want—the Uni. lunch room.

Come to Palladian hall Friday evening and hear a good program.

F. H. Peters, 1024 O street, jeweler. Diamond rings made to order.

Classes have been somewhat demoralized on account of the election and excitement.

Dad Cole. Dad Cole, Dad Cole, Dad Cole, Dad Cole's barber shop, Capital Hotel, 145 N 11th St.

The old students go to Westerfield's. You should do the same, if you want the best hair cut in the city.

We are selling tablets and students' note books at a big reduction this week. 5 cent note books go for 3 and 4 cents. 10 cents for 6, 7 and 8 cents. Don't miss this chance. Herpolsheimer & Co.

Comfort to California.

Every Thursday morning, a tourist sleeping car for Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles leaves Omaha and Lincoln via the Burlington Route.

It is carpeted; upholstered in rattan; has spring seats and backs and is provided with curtains, bedding, towels, soap, etc. An experienced excursion conductor and a uniformed Pullman porter accompany it through to the Pacific coast.

While neither as expensively finished nor as fine to look at as a palace sleeper, it is just as good to ride in. Second-class tickets are honored and the price of a berth, wide enough and big enough for two, is only $5.

For a folder giving full particulars, call at the B. & M. depot or city office, corner of 10th & O streets.
