

Walter Van Fleet Hoagland was at the Uni. last week.

All the societies have adjourned for the Ottumwa Quartette.

Prof. Brown will lecture before the E. E.'s Saturday evening.

Misses Day and Wallace have resigned from Palladian society.

J. A. Barret spent Thanksgiving with his brother in Council Bluffs.

The annual hop of the Pershing Rifles at the Lincoln to-morrow night.

Flora Bullock won first prize, twenty-five dollars, in the Courier's story contest.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean will entertain the Senior class next Saturday evening.

Seven thousand baths have been taken at the Uni. bath rooms since school opened.

The Delians are making preparations for their "Feed" to be given just before the Holidays.

Ex-Chancellor Canfield is prominently mentioned among Seniors for commencement orator.

Just received. All sizes and widths of Uni. gymnasium shoes. Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

C. A. Fisher has returned to school. He has been engaged in a geological survey in the central part of the state.

Mrs. A. J. Sawyer will speak before the Political Economy club Tuesday evening on "The economic causes of the present social unrest."

Prof. Barbour has been elected member of the American Geological Society and will read a paper at its meeting in Washington this month.

Miss Estella Davison, college of law '96, ran on the fusion ticket in Brown County attorney and was elected although the county went for McKinley.

R. L. Cheney, '94, is visiting the University. He has been tilling the soil since his graduation.

The D. B. D. C has inaugurated a new scheme for parliamatory drill. It is reported to be a great success.

Philip J. Maguire has received an offer of a fellowship in economics under J. Lawrence Laughlin at Chicago University. He has not yet decided to accept.

The following former University students read papers before the N. W. Teachers' association last week: Emma Boose, who is teaching at Hay Springs; May Hopper, Kate Buncher and L. J. Abbott Jr., who are teaching at Crawford.

In spite of the disturbing influence of vacation, the enterprising Delians had a program Friday evening. The program was as follows:—Vocal solo (a & b) J. H. Sayer. Vocal solo (tin-pan accompaniment) O. T. Reedy. Impromptu Story Telling Contest; Messrs. Anderson, Boomer, Williams, Reedy, Killen and Sayer and Misses Packard and Countryman.

Mr. Sayer was awarded first and Miss Countryman second places. Mr. Sayer accompanied his story by dramatic action much to the discomposure of Allen's hair.

A vocal solo by Mr. Horne and a piano solo by Miss Countryman ended the program.

1200 T St. for good board.

Kans. & Neb. Fuel Co. 1008 O Street.

1330 O street. Jas. Kolbach custom shoe shop.

First class shaves and hair cuts for sale at Westerfields.

Board $8.00 per Calendar month at 1200 T St.

If you want good coal and want it cheap, call up telephone 335.

F. H. Peters, 1024 O street, jeweler. Diamond rings made to order.

Pinkerton Boarding Club, 1200 T St., right across from Nebraska Hall.

The Kansas & Nebraska Fuel Co. guarantees its coal to be the best for the money expended.