

through the prescribed curriculum. We must come in touch with our fellow students socially. He who shuts himself up to continual perusal of the knowledge which is inscribed between book covers, will soon find himself out of touch with the world. The day of the scholastic monk is past. Let us quit living the hermit and learn to sympathize with and understand our fellow mortals.

George Porter spent Sunday with his parents at Unadilla.

Call and see our new hydraulic chairs at 1144 O street. R & C.

Miss Ora Seely of Nebraska City visited university friends last week.

Principal J. W. Crabtree of Beatrice was a university caller Saturday.

Prof. Sherman addressed the university Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon.

Professor Peterson dismissed his classes Monday on account of a severe cold.

Miss Emily Weeks has been unable to attend school the past week on account of sickness.

Miss Barr, instructor in the gymnasium department, is suffering from a severe attack of the grip.

Dr. Bessey has just received notice of his election as vice-president of the American Forestry Association.

The Glee club will start on its tour of the state the 15th of March. The club will be accompanied by Prof. Kimball.

Miss Katharine Melick left Saturday morning to begin her work as English instructor in the Red Oak, Iowa, High School.

Mr. Covell of '95, who is teaching at Elmwood, spent Saturday and Sunday with old acquaintances around the university.

Coal to burn. Charles B. Gregory, U. of N. '91, sells all kinds of coal at 1100 O street in the basement of the Richards block. Students are invited to call.

Best work in the city. Merchant's Barber Shop.

Miss Sara Vore Taylor '96, of South Omaha spent Sunday in Lincoln.

Miss Vesta Gray '94, of Fremont, attended the Phi Beta Kappa reception.

Prof. A. W. Clark of the State Normal spent Tuesday with his sister, Miss Clark of the state university.

O. H. Allen who has been serving on a jury for the past three weeks has resumed his work in school.

All young men who intend to play ball in the class teams should hand their names in to the managers at once.

Watch for the adv. of Perkins & Sheldon which will soon appear in these columns. Meanwhile call around and try our shoes and you'll never leave us. 1129 O street.

On Saturday night the D. B. D. C. will debate the question, "Resolved: That a five-sixth vote of a jury should be sufficient to render a verdict." All young men are invited to come and take part in the debate.

The University Newman (Catholic) society elected the following officers last Friday evening: J. A. Maguire, president; Patrick Roddy, vice president; Miss McLaughlan, recording secretary and G. W. Ashford, corresponding secretary.

The English club met last Saturday evening with Miss Lucy Green. The following program was rendered: Sketch Miss Smoyer; stories by Prof. Thurber, Keene Abbott, Misses Henry and Walker. Refreshments were served after which a short business session was held.

The "Boys" and "Girls" of the Delian society are having a program contest. The boys give their program tonight and the girls hold forth one week hence. The winners will enjoy a feast at the expense of the losers. Several Delian girls have been heard to ask the price of oysters in bulk.