Delian Resolutions.

Whereas the United States government has required the services of our brother, R. A. Emerson, at Washington; and

Whereas, he was called away so suddenly that we could make no material demonstration of the satisfaction we feel on knowing the honor he has gained, we, the members of the Delian Society, have unanimously

Resolved, That we wish Mr. Emerson to know beyond all doubt that we tender him our sincere congratulations and wish him all possible success in his responsible position. That as he leaves us, we have for him all the esteem that we could have for a high-minded gentleman and co-worker; and that we wish him to know the Delian Society will long remember him as one of her strongest sons.

It is further resolved that these resolutions be published in the HESPERIAN and forwarded to Mr. Emerson at Washington and to his parents at University Place
