Who is Slansky? _____

Easter -- gay, wasn't it? _____

I SAW THE SHOW

Upon our "high society"
My disposition sours
For manifesting piety
In Easter hats and flowers.
Hypocrisy and foolish pride,
Each soul with blackest stains upon it,
We satisfy ourselves to hide
Beneath a gaudy Easter bonnet.

THROUGH COLORED GLASS.

The Seniors would not disagree,
If Slansky were a Prof.
We'd know at least the 'Rule of Three,'
If Slansky were a Prof.
Our Barrett wouldn't be married now,
If Slansky were a Prof.
Congratulations anyhow,
Though Slansky is no Prof.
Prof. Praye's "Sweet Moments" have no show
Since Slansky is no Prof.
Prof. Lees' "Battle AX" must go,
For Slansky is no Prof.
The hard times' three blanks, our disgrace,
Since Slansky is no Prof.
By six foot sidewalks we replace,
Since Slansky is no Prof.
The chapel service wouldn't be 'bum,'
If Slansky were a Prof.
I'm sure the eager Prof's, would come,
If Slansky were a Prof.
And there wouldn't be a caucus then,
If Slansky were a Prof.
In each library above when,
Here Slansky is a Prof.

HE PUTS ME TO SLEEP.

[Communitated]

If you want a receipt for the popular mystery,
Known to the world as the talkative man
Go not to seek noted names out of history;
Just take a pattern from Professor Dann.

He talks about German, grinds us out science,
Discourses theology, ancient and deep;
In Greek, he can shout out a hero's defiance;
But he talks and he talks till he puts me to sleep.

C. D. Searson of Grand Island visited his brother
J. W. this week.

Bert Robinson has been initiated into the mysteries of Beta Theta Phi.

Members of the battalion must wear duck trousers in drill after May 1.

The battalion took up the extended order and bayonet exercises this week.

J. P. Cameron sang at the First Congregational church last Sunday at the special Easter service.

Prof. Barber left Tuesday morning for Table
Rock and Pawnee City.

Chancellor MacLean has been invited to address the Kansas state Y. M. C. A.

Supt. Reed, of the Crete schools was a university visitor the fore part of the week.

Miss Byerly of Blue Hill will not be in the University the rest of the school year.

Prof. H. W. Caldwell will lecture before the graduates of the Lincoln High School May 7.

Misses Johnson and Hewitt were elected members of the Palladian Society last Friday night.

J. D. Denison went out to Tecumseh, Friday evening, where he acted as judge in a declamation contest.

The university museum has just received a fine collection of rocks, crystals, ores and fossils from Columbia College, N. Y.

A Calcutta India educator has sent a request to the Chancellor for one of Prof. Sherman's English Literature charts. Talk about the fame of the University of Nebraska!

The cheapest place in Lincoln to buy Students'
Note Books, History Paper, Fountain Pens, Dictionaries, Paper covered Novels and all books, stationery and college supplies in general in the Book Department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

Our programfor 1897

contemplates giving the people of Nebraska the best service to the east, west, north and south they have ever known.

It contemplates a continuance of our practice of landing passengers in Chicago, Peoria, St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver as quick or quicker than any other road running out of Lincoln and with no change of cars.

It includes improvements in equipment, track, motive power, bridges and depots.

During 1897 there will be more reasons and better reasons for taking the Burlington Route than ever before.
