

Dr. Clyde Davis, Dentist, Richards Blk. Co. A will hold a banquet Saturday night.

Lula Burrows was visiting her sister last Tuesday.

Jas. Munroe, of Elkhorn, visited his daughter this week.

The Unions will have a lawn party next Monday night.

Eva McCune joined the Union society last Friday evening.

The Palladian girls will give a special program this evening.

Tom Hall's familiar face was seen at the university this week.

Boys go down to the R & C shop and get the latest hair cuts.

Prof. Fossler will give a lecture at chapel next Thursday morning.

A. E. Parmelee was initiated into the Delta Tau Delta Saturday night.

Miss Redmond of Omaha, was the guest of Sadie Pyrrh over Sunday.

Best grade of duck pants at $1 and $1.50 at the Armstrong Clothing Co.

The Delta Tau Deltas gave a dancing party at Burlington Beach last Tuesday evening.

Anna Fossler is assisting in Zoology laboratory during the absence of H. M. Benedict.

Boys, remember that Westfield, the pioneer barber, gives the latest style in hair cuts 117 N. 3th.

Dr. C. E. Bessey returned Monday from St. Louis where he went to be present at a banquet given by a botanical association.

The P. B. D. C. will hold a debate with the Lincoln Normal, at the latter place, next Saturday night. The club will be represented by Messrs Perry, Smoyer and Burleigh.

Miss Florence Shank's sister from Red Oak, Iowa, has been visiting the university this week.

Straw hats are in season now and you should see Bumstead & Tuttle's hats before buying. 117 So 11th.

The graduating recital of Mrs. Irene Davison McMichael was held in the chapel Monday evening.

The Union and Delian boys will play a game of ball next Saturday morning. The game promises to be interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Troyer, of Denver, arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. Troyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Chappell.

For high polish or domestic work, try THE BEST LAUNDRY. We do not break collars, they are turned by hand. 2249 O Street. Phone 579.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Minnie Reetz to Mr. Chas. McNeil which will take place at the bride's parents, 7th and B streets, Lincoln, Neb., at high noon June 2. Miss Reetz was a member of the class of '96 and has many friends in the university.

The "University"—the latest thing in embossed tablets is to be had only at the Book Department of Herpolsheimer & Co. Envelopes in all sizes to match tablets, and embossed "University of Nebraska" can also be bought at the same place.

The following will explain itself to E. N. Corbin's many friends in the university: "H. A. Wyckoff having resigned his position with the Walton Electric light works they have been fortunate in securing E. N. Corbin of the Nebraska Electrical College. Mr. Corbin is a practical electrician, having had four years in the electrical college and having had twelve years experience in electric light and construction work."—Walton (N. Y.) Chronical.

Lady students can find no better place to buy millinery than at Mrs. Gosper's.