

Alumni Notes.

Miss May Hopper '95, will teach at Hay Springs.

Will Pillsbury '95 was re-elected at Falls City, with a raise of wages.

Miss Nellie Clark '95, will act as assistant principal at Wahoo, Nebr.

Miss Amy Bruner '95, will teach in the grades at Wesner, Nebr.

H. A. Senter has been elected teacher of Science in the Omaha High School.

Miss Jane Smails '95, may be found at Syracuse, where she is Assistant Principal in the H. S.

A. M. Troyer '91, will have charge of the department of agricultural school at Mobile, Alabama.

Messrs McGuffey and McClure of the class of '95, spent the summer at the U. of N. taking "post" work in Prep. Chemistry.

J. W. Searson spent most of the summer in institute and summer normal work. He taught eight weeks at Grand Island and two at Edgar.

R. C. Bentley and wife '95, have moved to California. Mr. Bentley has secured the position as principle of a high school, with Mrs. Bentley as assistant.

G. L. Town '95, spent the summer studying at Chicago university. His re-election as principal of the high school at Junction City speaks well for his work there.

W. H. Rhodes, '96, has received the nomination for County Sup't. on the Fusion ticket in Thayer County. The HESPERIAN wishes him success in his political career.

Miss Louisa Pound spent the summer in Chicago, studying English and Sanscrit at Chicago university. For amusement she played tennis and was awarded the championship of the west.

John Almy sails this week for Berlin, Germany, where he will study Physics for two years. His many University friends will gladly welcome him, when he returns to do honor to his Alma Mater.

Dr. Clyde Davis, dentist, 4th floor Richards block.

Local and Personal

Chas. Root will teach at Elkhorn, Neb.

Miss Shively will teach at Elmwood this year.

C. M. Barr will remain at Litchfield another year.

Miss Mabel Dempster studied French in the Summer School.

Burt Forbes and Martha Burks will teach at Beatrice again.

John Martz will teach school in the country near Liberty.

Ensley Shue has been elected to a position in the Liberty Schools.

Mr. W. J. Hunting spent the greater part of his vacation editing a farm near Arapahoe.

C. W. Taylor spent the greater part of his vacation "prospecting" in the Black Hills country.

S. W. Pinkerton spent the first six weeks of his vacation making up French; the last six on the state farm.

E. A. and W. H. Moore superintended an Iowa farm, not as a financial adventure, but merely for recreation.

Several Palladians "surprised" their friend and former president, Miss Helena Redford, last Thursday evening.

H. O. Sutton employed the first part of his vacation in making up French; the last with "ma," at Broken Bow.

Harry Sackett, '98 Law, spent vacation working in Gage Co. Supt's. office and in selling Mathematical charts.

Joel Stebbins, who showed his skill in military work at the Uni. last year, won a national medal at Nashville, Tenn. in individual drill.

Mr. E. D. Banghart did not go outside the city corporation during the whole summer. He was engaged in business pursuits too numerous to mention.

A. W. Martin, Law '96 was orator of the day at the Dorchester Fourth of July Celebration. E. B. Perry made the eagle scream at a Frontier Co. celebration. No serious result in either case.