The Unions who spent the summer in Lincoln report several jolly celebrations. The intense hot weather did not effect their loyalty, and made three sailing parties decidedly enjoyable. At the close of the summer school Miss Dempster entertained in honor of those who had taken work, and of Mr. Almy, who sailed last week for Berlin, Germany. All of the Unions are returning, filled with enthusiasm for their years work, and will gladly welcome new and old students at their opening reception, this (Friday) evening.

contemplates giving the people of Nebraska the best service to the east, west, north and south they have ever known.

It contemplates a continuance of our practice of landing passengers in Chicago, Peoria, St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver as quick or quicker than any other road running out of Lincoln and with no change of cars.

It includes improvements in equipment, track, motive power, bridges and depots.

During 1897 there will be more reasons and better reasons for taking the Burlington Route than ever before.
