

Alumni Notes.

Wm. Grant '97 who has been surveying for the B. & M. rail road in north western Nebraska is in town this week. He expects to return to his work soon.

Harold Weaver '97, of Schuyler was renewing old acquaintances around the university last Monday.

Miss Maud Skinner '97 gave a talk on Missions before the Christian Endeavor convention at Beatrice on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Joseph Schofield '88, was in Lincoln Friday and Saturday renewing acquaintance with former University friends. He was accompanied by his wife and child.

Miss Mary E. Sargent '97, was married last Thursday, at the home of her parents in this city, to Mr. Weese.

Miss Jennie Hall '97, has returned home from Iowa, where she has been for some time.

Miss Frances E. Duncomb '97 is now attending Cornell University.

Mr. Ed. Pillsbury '97 is in Lincoln for a visit with friends.

Messrs. Ireland and Kenagy will be with the Glee Club this year.

R. A. Lyman, who has been assisting in the Zoological laboratory, has accepted a position in the Lincoln High School.

The Delians will give a benefit concert in the chapel Friday Nov. 5th. The other societies will probably adjourn.

The freshmen held a class meeting Wednesday evening to consider the athletic constitution.

Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri will speak at the Lansing Friday night under the auspices of the University bi-metallic club.

Dr. Ward lectured before the Medical society Tuesday evening, on "The Tendencies of Modern Medicine as viewed by an Outsider." The society held a short business meeting after the lecture.

CLUBBING OFFER—Both the HESPERIAN and the Western College Magazine will be sent to all new subscribers for $1. The subscription price of each is $1, so you get two dollars worth of reading matter for one dollar. Now is the time to subscribe.

If you want a shave, go to Westerfield's.

Miss Elizabeth Thomson of McCook will be the guest of her Palladian friends over Sunday.

Miss Cora Elmore returned to the University Friday. She will enter the conservatory.

T. D. Lunn attended the C. E. convention at Beatrice last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Phillip Hudson and Miss Mabel Kempton, both of the Conservatory, favored the Delians Friday evening with choice selections.

The University Sugar School will make an excursion to the sugar factory at Grand Island next Saturday.

If you want a hair cut go to Westerfield's. If you want anything in the line of Tonsorial work, Westerfield's is the place to find it. 117 North 13 St.

Messrs. Vasey, Warner, Swallow and Wy-more have joined the Delian Society. The names of Misses Dora and Inez Smith, and Messrs Gibson and Baker have been proposed for active membership.

The Delians, attired in outlandish costumes are to give a Hallowe'en party at the outlandish Red Ribbon hall, Saturday evening. Outlandish refreshments will be served in outlandish style.

The junior class had a meeting last week and adopted a constitution to control the action of the athletic board from that class. Mr. Garringer was given full management of the class football team.

Prof. H. Bates has recently taken the chair in English in the Brooklyn N. Y. Manual Training School. He enjoys a home on Bath Beach where he "can see the lights flash up every night on Coney Island and all along the Jersey shore."

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Roberts, at Paonia, Col., a boy. Mr. Roberts was a member of the Union Society, formerly '98 and one of the most popular men in his class. His friends speak of him as a budding young poet.

"Belle of the Season Two Step," "In the Baggage Coach Ahead," "Isabelle" song, "Some Day You'll Know" special this week at 21c. A full line of violin, guitar and mandolin folios and methods at greatly reduced prices. Music Dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

There are no shoes fit like those at the Foot Form Store 1213 O street