

A training table at the conservatory dining room has been prepared for the foot ball team.

DeLoss T. Smith sells and repairs watches jewelry, etc. 1140 O St.

Mrs. L. Holland is visiting Miss Nellie D. Crowley this week.

Scott & Shannon, tonsorial artists. S. E. corner 12th & O sts Give us a call

C. E. Crownover '97 who is with a B. & M. surveying party, was in the city over Sunday.

The Co-op is selling stationary at a very low figure.

The Junior football team played Wesleyan Wednesday. Score 22-0 in Wesleyan's favor.

Best table board $2.00 at 1230 T St. Mrs. S. K. Hugg. Be sure and give it a trial.

The names of Miss Meserve and Mr. Hilton were proposed for membership in the Palladian society last Friday night.

We do not break collars: they are turned by hand. The Best Laundry, 2249 O street. Tel. 579.

The senior canes arrived last Saturday just in time for the football game. They are very neat and make an excellent "walking" stick.

Several Doane students who are still interested in football, altho' they cannot play, were seen on the campus Saturday.

The senior class in political economy is studying the banking system at present, together with the credit system.

Press your clothing for $1 per month. Gardner the Tailor under Rock Island ticket office Cor. 11th & O.

The Union and Palladian societies will adjourn Friday night to attend the Delian concert.

The Nebraska Section of the American Chemical Society met last Friday evening. Papers were read by Dr. Senter, Miss Bouton and Dr. White.

Lincoln's "Hustlers" are the people to buy of, if you don't know 'em, try their Three "Beauts." They are cheap and hot as—! Pennsylvania also. Phone 440. 1206 O.

The Misses Cora Stewart, Mary Tidball and Sara Hotze visited the University Monday on their return to Doane college from the Y. W. C. A. convention at York.

Prof. Luckey is authority for the statement that the department of pedagogy is seventy per cent larger this year than last.

Miss Effie Price the national secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who was expected to address the students in Chapel Wednesday morning failed to appear because her train was late.

By special arrangements with the Collector Publishing Co. the HESPERIAN can send law students "The Law Student's helper" and the HESPERIAN, both one year, for $1.50. Quiz books may be had for forty cents each. Inquire of Sackett or Perry.

The theatre going students and professors should observe the ad. of Mr. Zehring in this issue. On Friday and Saturday nights, the big spectacular play of "She" will be played. The press speak highly of this show.

On Tuesday Nov. 9, Joe D. Flynn will be at the Funke in "McGinty the Sport." All lovers of comedy should not miss seeing Mr. Flynn. He keeps his audience in a continual roar throughout the play. The show is highly recommended by the press.

Joe, brother of J. D. Denison, who came to his untimely end last week, was a young man twenty-three years of age. He graduated from S. U. I. medical college last spring and was one of the most promising young men in that part of Iowa. The student body can appreciate the extent of Mr. Denison's loss.

A. H. Andrews was elected President of the Engineering Club which was organized Wednesday. The Juniors and Seniors of the civil engineering class are the founders of the organization. A course of five lectures by Andrew Rosewater, City Engineer of Omaha, will be given.

We have now on sale a full line of Mandolins, Guitars, Violins, etc., etc. which we are selling at our usually close prices. We also carry all musical supplies, such as Violin, Guitar and Mandolin strings, Bridges, Rosin, Chin Rests, Capo-D'Astros, Guitar Patent Heads, Music Rolls, Metronomes, Mouth Harps, Autoharps and Mandolin Picks and everything appertaining to music. New sheet music at popular prices. "Sweet Bunch of Daisies," "Take Back your Gold," "Belle of the Season" two step each 21c.

MUSIC DEPT. HERBOLSHEIMER & Co.