

75c for the HESPERIAN for the rest of the school year.

Gardner the tailor has put in a new stock of mens furnishings Goods. See him for Christmas presents, also join his Pressing Club, So. West Cor. 11th & O.

A very large number of University students heard James Whitecomb Riley the 22 nd. It was a rare treat to hear the words of the "Hoosier" poet from his own lips.

Lincoln's "Hustlers" are the people to buy of, if you don't know 'em, try their Three "Beauts." They are cheap and hot as—! Pennsylvania also. Phone 440. 1206 O.

Some one in making change at Book Dep't. of Herpolsheimer and Co. on Nov. 23. made a mistake and paid too much. Whoever did this will be given back the change if the party calls at the store.

The Western College Magazine for December is a football number of 64 pages. It will contain a personnel of each football team of any prominence in the west. Nebraska will have a good representation. There will be a report of the Kansas-Nebr. game, also a cut of the Nebr. team. Every student should have a copy of this number. See J. F. Boomer at the Co-op. and give him your name. Only 10c.

Subscribe for the HESPERIAN and get the news, only 75c the rest of the year.

Students of the University and their friends are invited to inspect our stock of Books, Stationary, Music, and Musical Instruments, before buying presents for their friends at Christmas. We have all the latest publications at cut prices, all the latest music at half price or less, all the latest styles and tints in stationery at about half the price charged for the same goods elsewhere. Musical Instruments, Guitars, Mandolins, Autoharps, Violins, at prices never seen before in Lincoln. Our celebrated Fountain Pens are in more demand than ever. If you will send to or call at our Music Dept. you can get a catalogue of over 4000 pieces of Instrumental and Vocal Music at 5c per piece. Book, Stationery and Music Departments, Herpolsheimer & Co.

Among the Greeks.

The Betas gave an informal party Thanksgiving evening.

Ed. Cramb, a Beta, spent Thanksgiving with his parents near Fairbury.

George and Harry Shedd, Phi Psis, spent Thanksgiving at Ashland, their home.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave an informal party last Friday evening.

Delta Delta Delta gave a dancing party at the Lincoln hotel Wednesday evening of last week.

Tomorrow evening the P. B. D. C. debate the question Resolved that a national board should be established for the arbitration of labor troubles.

There is beginning to be considerable interest in basket ball. Two teams were chosen from each the 8, 11, and 5 o'clock classes. Contests were held this week to decide which team should be the first class team. Placek's team will represent the 11 o'clock division. The contests today will decide the other teams.

The Maxwell club and the U. B. D. C. has an interesting joint debate Saturday Nov. 29. The question discussed was that "The deficiency judgment law is just and equitable." Miss Stull and Messrs Denison and Lien represented the Maxwells. Messrs Simpson, Hager and Bollinback the Unions.

Jonas Lien was one of the "big guns" who went to Council Bluffs to witness the football game.

The Academy of Science met last Friday and Saturday in Nebraska hall. Among those who read papers were Professors Ward, Barbour, Davis, More and Wolcott. Papers were also read by Miss Carrie Barbour and by Messrs Hunter and Elmore. Mr. N. H. Darton of the geological survey gave a lecture in chapel Friday evening on the geological features of Nebraska. The members enjoyed a reception in Palladian hall Friday evening. Dr. Ward was elected president at the business session.

Loyden ARTISTIC Photographer OUR SPECIALTY

First Class Work in all Branches. See our work and get prices on groups.
SPECIAL PRICES TO STUDENTS.

First National Bank

Lincoln, Nebraska.

CAPITAL - $400,000.00

John L. Carson, President, D. D. Muir, Cashier.
H. S. Freeman, Ass't Cashier.