

If you want a shave, go to Westerfield's.

Our spring styles are beauties; come in and see them. Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

The Co-op is selling stationary at a very low figure.

We do not break collars: they are turned by hand. The Best Laundry, 2249 O street.

Full line of tablets and history covers at the Cooperative Book Co.

Chancellor MacLean will head the delegation to the state oratorical contest at Crete, April 8.

The public pay-telephone station is proving about as popular as the five cent baths did two years ago.

Miss McGuffey has been compelled to leave the University for the rest of the year by the illness of her mother.

J. F. Boomer occupied the pulpit at Liberty Sunday. Mr. Boomer, while driving from Wymore to Beatrice, had the misfortune to be thrown out of the vehicle receiving some slight injuries.

If you want to see one of the prettiest wheels of the season go to A. L. Girard & Co. 135 So. 12th street. He has the League wheel this season and is selling it at $35. It's a beaut.

Mr. James A. Cruickshanks '01 has received notice of his appointment to the position of "weigher" in the railway mail service. He will begin work some time in April.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock will be led by H. S. Evans. The subject for consideration will be "The source of our strength."

All subscriptions must be paid at once. Send the business manager that dollar without delay, and save him the trouble of extending to you a written invitation.

Gentlemen—We desire to call your attention to the ad. of the Regent Shoe Co. which appears in another column of our paper. You will do well to see this stock before buying shoes.

We do not sell gold dollars for 50c but we do sell the best men's $3 shoe that was ever put on the market for the money. We have them in all the late shades and shapes.

Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

The following are the Y. W. C. A. officers for the coming term: Lula Burrows, president; Grace Broady, vice-president; Bertha Johnston, secretary; Anna Atwood, treasurer; Eva McCune, corresponding secretary.

New books just received, "The Crucifixion of Philip Strony" and "In His Steps" by Chas. M. Sheldon 18c each. Fountain pens 69c each. History paper, history covers, etc. at lowest prices. Book department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

Special prices to students during the following week on picture and photograph framing. Photos framed in neat gilt molding with mat for 35c and upwards. Other houses charge 60c to $1.00 for the same class of work. Art and Music department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The lecture by Prof. Barber on Rome and Pompeii last Saturday night was one of the most interesting given this year. The illustrations added much. The Mamertine prison, the system of aqueducts and the Vatican museum were among the most interesting sights of Rome. A large number of the relics of the buried city, Pompeii, were shown together with the plan of the houses, pieces of statuary and a number of modern paintings. The chapel was crowded.

My Honey Lou, No Coon Allowed, A Real Coon, Mammy's Little Pumpkin Colored Coon as sung at the Ladies Minstrel performance at the University, for sale at Herpolsheimers Music and Art Dept.

Several members of University Union very pleasantly surprised Miss Edna Curtiss at her home 925 C street, Saturday night, as a celebration of her birthday. During the week Miss Annette Abbott invited several old Unions to go out and make Miss Curtiss feel something beyond the ordinary would happen on this birthday. The evening was spent in playing social games and guessing "hypnotic" tricks. Toward the Sunday hour the crowd departed after giving the Union yell and thanking Miss Curtiss for their most enjoyable evening's entertainment. Those present were Misses Dempster, Martha and Rena Chappell, Anderson, Abbott, Munroe, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Abbott, Messrs. Searson, VanValin, Kinton, Evans, Chapman, McGuffey and Mumford.