

The new members' program of the Delian Society which will be given tonight promises to be an interesting one.

Mr. B. G. Almy, '96, will take his examination tomorrow morning for his M. A. degree. Mr. Almy intends to go to Leipsic in about two months to study for a doctor's degree in philosophy.

The fourth annual address before the Seminar will be given by Dr. Charles R. Barnes, of the University of Wisconsin, in the Botanical lecture room, in Nebraska hall, at 8:15 p. m., Saturday, May 21, 1898. Subject, "Evolutionary Failures."

Dr. E. W. Emerson, of Concord, Massachusetts, son of the late Ralph Waldo Emerson, will deliver the Phi Beta Kappa oration in the Lansing, June 8th. Dr. Emerson delivered the Phi Beta Kappa address at Harvard last year.

The latest hits: What did Dewey Do To Them, Wreck of the Battleship Maine, America Forever, Merry American March, etc. 20c. Colored pictures of Maine, American Battle Ships, Fitz Hugh Lee, etc. 10c each. Special sale on sheet music 2c per sheet. Art & Music Dept. Herpolsheimer & Co.

N. C. Abbott, '96, gave an address in Union society Friday evening, on "Educating the Blind." He gave a short account of the teaching of the blind at Nebraska City, explaining the system of writing used. He gave the history of the founding of schools for the blind and noted some of the greatest humanitarians connected with the work. The address was very interesting, and showed that Mr. Abbott had made a deep study of his subject.

The alumni of the Delian society took charge of Delian hall last Friday night. Mr. E. F. Warner presided. The music of the evening was furnished by Dr. J. P. Williams, R. O. Williams, Miss Clark and Mr. Hudson. The solos and encores by the Messers. Williams were excellent, to say the least, as was also the duet by Miss Clark and Mr. Hudson. Mr. Schuyler Miller read some verses of his own composition and Miss Alice Hunter's story, "The Volunteer" was of exceptional merit. Mr. O. H. Allen made a speech on the Supreme Court.
