Jasper Hunt '96 recently married Miss Ella Hall of Bennett. Mr. Hunt has for the past two years been principal of the Palmyra schools. The bride has been a teacher in the Cheney schools the past year.

The Unions have elected the following officers: President, Martha Chappell; vice president, Perse Morse; secretary, C. J. Platt; treasurer, Eva McCune; corresponding secretary, G. C. Howard; sergeant-at-arms, J. J. Plowhead.

A number of the students of the American History department went down to the B. & M. station Wednesday afternoon to bid Prof. Caldwell good-bye. No university instructor is more popular among his students than the "little professor."

The joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was led Sunday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. Hastings. The subject was "Mexico." Dr. Hastings has spent several months there studying the condition of the people and their need of Christian influence. The meeting proved very profitable.

The Nebraska section of the American chemical association will hold a regular meeting the evening of May 31, in room 12 of the Chemical laboratory. Prof. E. H. S. Bailey, of Kansas University, will address the society. Following the address the society will give its annual banquet.

The local chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa met Wednesday night and elected new officers and new members from the senior class. The officers are: President, Dr. C. E. Bessey; vice president, Prof. Lawrence Fossler; secretary, H. C. Peterson; corresponding secretary, Miss Louise Pound; member of the executive committee, Miss Henry.
