

Sadie E. Smith has been elected teacher in the Lead City, South Dakota, schools.

Mr. DeMilton Davis, '97, visited the University Monday.

Miss Ida W. Heise, '97, of Nebraska City, visited the University last Saturday.

Miss Olivia Pound, '95, has returned to Lincoln from Seward.

Prof. H. W. Caldwell left Wednesday for Boston to study for the summer.

Prof. Davidson will go to Inman June 3d, to give the commencement address.

Miss Grace Cook is again in school after a week's illness.

Prof. Barber has been unable to attend classes this week on account of severe illness.

A. S. Harding has been re-elected as teacher at Brookings with an increase of salary.

Chancellor MacLean will deliver the commencement address before the graduating class of the State Normal, at Peru, June 2.

Miss Clara Conklin left Monday for Indianapolis, leaving there Wednesday for New York, then she will sail directly for Paris.

Chas. Barber, '98, has obtained a position in a large grain office in Omaha. He will leave for there after commencement.

The Palladians will give a reception to their senior members this evening in their hall.

Horace Greeley Whitmore, '93, has been elected captain of the Bryan regiment, C. F. Swartz, '96, first lieutenant and E. R. Morrison, second lieutenant.

J. W. Crabtree will go to Ashland tonight to attend the graduating exercises. Mr. Crabtree was an active educator at Ashland for seven years and has a great interest in the school.

Dr. N. M. Kincoid, of Minneapolis, gave the annual Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. address Sunday evening. His address is regarded as one of the best that has ever been delivered to the Christian Associations.

The examinations have been altered again. The ones which were to come Wednesday, June 1st, will come Friday, May 27th. Monday and Wednesday of the week following will be holidays.

Rev. Dewey, a missionary from Turkey, and cousin of Admiral Dewey, spoke before the mission class Saturday. He has been for several days the guest of Prof. Swezey.

The Palladian Boys debating club elected officers last Saturday night: President, W. C. Green; vice-president, L. W. Pearson; secretary, G. A. Johnson; sergeant-at-arms, L. W. Waterman.

The University cadets intend to go to Omaha the first, on the opening of the Exposition, to participate in the exercises of the day, especially the parade. Their expenses are entirely paid by the Exposition company.

A. H. Andrews, '98, has been made assistant field engineer for the Black Hills & Ft. Pierre R. R. He will receive a very good salary for his services. His headquarters will be Lead City.

Miss Jeffery, principal of the Tecumseh high school, is expected home tomorrow in time to enjoy the Palladian picnic at the Park. She intends to take work in the summer school.

Mr. A. L. Bixby, of the Journal staff, lectured before the journalism class Tuesday on the country newspaper. Mr. Bixby's talk was one which kept the class in a very good humor and called for excessive laughter at times.

At a joint meeting of the oratorical and debating associations last Friday, J. A. Maguire, G. E. Hager, F. G. Hawxby, R. C. Roper and A. Bollinbach were elected a committee to confer with the faculty relative to giving University credit for debating and oratorical work.

At a meeting of the Hesperian Association last Saturday, L. W. Pearson, of the Palladian Society, was elected assistant business manager. The constitution was amended so that changes in the editorial staff will occur the first of the college year instead of the first of the calendar year.

The Palladians elected the following officers last Tuesday: President, J. D. Reed; vice-president, Ida Lewis; corresponding secretary, Florence Payne; music secretary, Clara Fowler; recording secretary, Bessie Butler; critic, Cora O'Connell; treasurer, C. M. Funk; sergeant-at-arms, Ralph Cornwallis Roper.

Just received a fine lot of Slippers for Commencement. Foot Form Store 1213 O Street