The Journalism class has been devoting considerable attention to the early newspapers, and to a comparison of the papers of an early time with the present. The result has been very surprising to those uninformed. Even the newspapers to-day show great differences. Those of France are very inferior to ours in news arrangement and in ingenuity.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines," by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as Official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco, on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the roar of battle at the fall of Manila. Bonanza for agents. Brimful of original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large book. Low prices. Big profits. Freight paid. Credit given. Drop all trashy unofficial war books. Outfit free. Address H. L. Barber, Gen. Mgr., 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.
