

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

University oratorical association meeting Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. in room 111 in the main building; annual election of officers.

The first public pupils' recital in the chapel Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burr and Miss Burr will entertain at the Lincoln hotel Friday evening.

Special society programs Friday evening.

Preliminary athletic contest for charter day on campus Saturday afternoon.

Foot ball game with Kansas City medics at Kansas City Saturday afternoon.

English club meeting Saturday evening.

Joint debate: Delian boys' debating club vs. Alpha Omega club of Doane Saturday at 8 p. m. in the chapel.

Address to Y. M. C. A. by Dr. Hindman Sunday at 4 p. m. in the chapel.

PERSONALS

Captain Williams was in Omaha last Thursday.

The Delta Gammas have pledged Miss Irene Hamilton.

F. E. Warner of Creighton, Neb., is visiting university friends.

R. B. Baker, A. M., '98, will take junior work in the law school this year.

Edron Rich, '84, candidate for regent on the fusion ticket, visited old friends at the university Saturday.

Arthur C. Pancoast is attending the fifty-first annual convention of Phi Gamma Delta at Dayton, O.

H. E. Dusenberry, superintendent of the Nelson schools, was a guest at the Phi Psi house a part of last week.

E. Gillespie, '89, who is connected with the war department at Washington, is in Lincoln on official duty.

Everett Sawyer, '97, who has been in Salt Lake City the past year, was on the campus last week shaking hands with old friends.

D. C. Hall, '97, arrived from Manila, P. I., the fore part of last week. After a few days' stay he left for Ithaca, N. Y., to visit his folks, whom he has not seen for four years.

Miss Grace Bridge, instructor in the high school and formerly of the university, was called to her home in Fremont last Wednesday morning by the sudden death of her brother.

A. H. Davis of North Platte and B. E. Hendricks of Wahoo, alumni of the state university law school, visited the junior law class Tuesday morning. Each made a short address.

FASTER THAN EVER.

Effective Oct. 15, the "Union Pacific" will inaugurate new train service and will reduce the time of the Overland Limited Train No. 1, between Chicago, Council Bluffs and San Francisco, 2 hours and 15 minutes. Only 57 hours Missouri river to Pacific coast. Buffet, smoking and library cars, with barber shop, Chicago and Council Bluffs to San Francisco and Portland. Three trains daily to and from Pacific coast. Elegant palace sleeping cars, dining cars, chair cars. For full information call on E. B. Slosson, agent.

NEW FRATERNITY HOUSE.

Stanford is to have another sorority house, and this time it is the Kappa Kappa Gammas who are to build. The building is to be of old English architecture with pointed, sloping roofs. It is to be three stories in height, with large, spacious rooms and halls and broad porches. It will be fitted out with modern improvements and when completed will accommodate twenty people. The chapter house when completed will cost in the neighborhood of $7,000.

LOCALS.

Gregory the Coal Man.

New books. University Book Store. The latest books in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Full line of writing tablets at University Book Store.

The Palladians are planning for a big Hallowe'en party.

Fine "Pennant" writing paper at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Nebraskan subscriptions taken at the University Book Store.

"Pennant" uni. writing paper in boxes at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Full line of tablets, writing pads and notebooks at the University Book Store.

Miss Kyle addressed the young ladies in the university chapel Sunday afternoon.

"You'll have to hurry" and order your shirts at Harper's shirt factory, 1012 O.

The Unions will give a party to invited friends and members next Friday evening.

Phi Kappa Psi has pledged Mr. Parkhurst of Lincoln, who is a graduate of Williams.

Waterman, Remex and Lakeside fountain pens, all styles, at University Book Store.

A new galvanized iron water tank was put in the bath room of the army last week.

A new thirty-five horse power boiler is being constructed for the conservatory of music.

Large supply of U. of N. writing tablets, with envelopes to match, University Book Store.

Our university pins have come and are going fast. Get one at the University Book Store.

Over 1,500 volumes have been received and catalogued at the library since September 1.

Large stock of U. of N. writing paper now in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th. Envelopes to match.

Bicycle and camera supplies of all kinds. Typewriting and mimeographing. At "The Co-op," 322 N. 11th St.

Jerome Langer was run into by a careless bicycle rider Monday morning and received a painful sprain in his right knee.

Steps were taken at the business meeting of the union literary society to co-operate with the college settlement committee.

Director Kimball is meeting with success in his effort to get up a party to take in the grand opera at Kansas City the latter part of this month.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

Students of the university who are not connected with the school of fine arts are requested to refrain from entering the studio during class hours.

The following new members were voted into the Palladian society last week: Miss Josephine Duras, Miss Margaret Grimison and H. H. Hawley.

Much favorable criticism has been heard of the lecture on Wagner given by John Randolph before the matinee musical society last Monday afternoon.

Every student in scientific courses needs "Wrapson and Gee Mathematical Tables," a library of scientific formulae. For sale at University Book Store.

An old-members' program was rendered at the Delian literary society last Friday evening. The crowded house seemed well pleased with the entertainment.

Good Clothes

Are to Respectability what the frame is to the picture..

Appearance go a long ways. More than ever before do clothes have an influence in determining one's first impression, sense and character of the man. It pays to buy stylish and well made clothing, such as bear the trade mark of L. Adler, Sons & Co. and Hart, Shaffner & Marx, and which compete successfully everywhere with the best custom work. We want every man of taste to see the exceedingly swell line of Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats from the above named manufacturers. You will be surprised at how handsomely you may be dressed for less than half what you have been paying your tailor.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS of the very latest design and fully tailor made, at

$10.00	$12.50
15.00	16.50
18.00	20.00

Armstrong Clothing Co.

H. W. Rose, intercollegiate secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, and Rev. Dr. Rowlands of this city conducted the chapel exercises Wednesday.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was an informal dancing party given by Kappa Alpha Theta at the home of Miss Agnew on H street Wednesday evening.

A meeting of the Reese club will be held next Tuesday night, October 31, in the G. A. R. hall. Good music and excellent speaking will be provided. Everybody cordially invited.

Eight volumes of "Hufcutt and Woodruff Cases," eight volumes of Wilgus "Cases on Evidence" and two volumes of case reports have recently been added to the law library.

Last Friday evening Misses McFall and Bess McWilliams and Messrs. Bert Doane, Clarence Allen and W. P. Anderson were proposed for membership into the Delian literary society.

History covers, full size, leather back, 15c each at Herpolsheimer's Book Dept. A full line of students' notebooks, history paper, theme paper, Faber pencils, lead pencils, etc., at lowest prices.

Miss Fox and Miss Blandin entertain the English club at 1249 S street Saturday evening. The program will be as follows: Story, R. C. Lansing; critical essay, Miss Mae Whiting; story, G. M. Bartlett.

The Palladians will give a special war program Friday night. Members of the First and Second Nebraska regiments will have entire control of the program and some very interesting features are expected.

Acting Chancellor and Mrs. Bessey left last Wednesday afternoon for Des Moines, Ia. While away he will also inspect the dairy school of the Ames agricultural college and study the water supply system in use there.

All coal will go higher very soon if present conditions continue. It will pay every one to arrange for their winter's coal at once by seeing Charles B. Gregory at 1044 O street.

The reference books in the library have been supplemented by the two following sets: National Cyclopaedia of American Biography, in eight volumes, and the Imperial Dictionary of the English Language, in four volumes.

Some new men have joined the scrubs in response to the appeal of Coach Branch. Still the reserves are not strong enough to give the first team the proper practice and every available man is desired on the field.

On Tuesday evening the Epworth league of Grace M. E. church gave a reception to new students. Several from the university and many from Wesleyan attended and spent a very enjoyable evening. An entertaining program was rendered.

The cadet battalion is fast being formed into a well drilled organization. The new men are being drilled in the manual of arms a part of every drill hour. Wednesday they devoted a portion of their time to bayonet exercises. The battalion is to be uniformed by the Thanksgiving recess.

A training table has been started for the benefit of the foot ball players and is located in the conservatory. This is a progressive move in the right direction and the coach is to be congratulated upon his insistent endeavors to get the team into the best possible shape before the coming big games.

Invitations to the president and faculty have been received at the chancellor's office requesting their attendance on November 3 at the inauguration of Dr. Louis Edward Holden, the new president of Western university, Ohio. As yet no delegate has been appointed. Acting Chancellor Bessey thinks he will not be able to attend on that date.