

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

Athletic board meeting Monday evening in the armory.

Public pupils' recital in chapel Thursday evening.

Pershing Rifle drill Thursday evening in the armory.

Practice for foot ball songs in chapel Friday morning at regular chapel hour.

Literary society meetings Friday as usual.

Foot ball Saturday—Kansas vs. Nebraska.

PERSONALS.

P. J. Barron, '98, was in town last Tuesday for election.

Percy Parkhurst, a graduate student, has gone to Chicago for a few days.

Miss Helen Woods spent several days last week visiting in Lawrence, Kan.

Carl Fricke, ex-'01 of Plattsmouth, was a visitor at the Phi Psi house last week.

R. E. Morgan is now at his home in Tobias, Neb., and is very ill with typhoid fever.

Professor Shipman of Tufts college, Massachusetts, was a caller at the university yesterday.

Miss May Colson, '99, school of music, of Fremont, is taking a post graduate course in the school.

Dr. A. T. Peters left Sunday for western Nebraska to investigate a mysterious disease among cattle there.

Professor Bruner will deliver a lecture next Saturday before the county teachers' association at Arlington.

Miss Mercy Walker, '98, a teacher this year at Schuyler, Neb., visited the grade schools in Lincoln last Friday.

Professor Purmart Eames delivered a highly interesting analytical lecture recital before the Woman's club last week.

A. A. Hunter, collector for the botanical department, left Thursday for the western part of the state, where he will collect specimens.

Will and James Johnston, '94, for a time practicing law together at Billings, Mont., have opened an additional office at Miles City.

Miss Bessie Turner left Lincoln last Saturday to spend the winter in New York, where she expects to devote her attention to voice culture.

Miss Ruth A. Price, a former university student, is making a map of the country around Fairbury for the use of the department of geology.

Dr. Hastings went to Omaha Friday evening to join Professor Ward and Dr. Wolcott in a ten-mile tramp to Bellevue. Specimens will be collected on the way.

Miss Eugenia Getner of the school of music is engaged in writing for the music columns of the Omaha Bee and will probably open a studio in that city.

Allen Smith, a student in the senior class, died last Wednesday at his home in Blue Springs, Neb. He had been for two years an assistant in physics and mathematics.

Virgil Barber, '98, who is engaged in farmers' institute work, delivered an address to the ranchmen of the northwest part of the state at Harrison last Thursday evening.

Will L. McKay, '98, now connected with the U. S. weather bureau at Buffalo, N. Y., writes that he enjoys regulating the weather for the inhabitants of that region very much.

M. S. Moore, a member of the present graduating class, now at the Omaha medical college, stopped at the university last Thursday and shook hands with many of the students. He expects to be in the university the second semester.

Miss Free of Berlin, Germany, who recently played at a chapel musical, has been engaged as piano instructor in the school of music. Miss Free was a favorite pupil of Moskowski, Europe's greatest pianist, and assisted him in his work. She has a wonderful technique and will be welcomed into Lincoln musical society.

LOCALS.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

Harper, shirts, 1012 O street.

New books. University Book Store.

The latest books in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Full line of writing tablets at University Book Store.

When the freshmen get sick buy 'em Wrapson & Gee tables.

Fine "Pennant" writing paper at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

"Pennant" uni. writing paper in boxes at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

The sophomores cry for Wrapson & Gee tables. University Book Store.

A large number of students went to their homes last Monday for election.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.

The chapel exercises were conducted on Thursday morning by Rev. H. N. Spear.

The graduate club met last Saturday night with Professor Davis, 1545 C street.

All the juniors cling to Wrapson & Gee tables. On sale at University Book Store.

The seniors can't get along without 'em. Wrapson & Gee mathematical tables.

Waterman, Remex and Lakeside fountain pens, all styles, at University Book Store.

Large supply of U. of N. writing tablets, with envelopes to match. University Book Store.

Dr. Thompson, president of Tarkio college, led the chapel exercises last Monday morning.

Large stock of U. of N. writing paper now in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th. Envelopes to match.

The special program given by the Palladians last Friday evening proved to be one of exceptional merit.

The law school adjourned for two days last week in order that the law students might go home to vote.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. 226 South 11th St. Phone 848.

Recitals, given by various students in the school of music, will be given in the chapel every Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Dean Wilson will address the girls at the Y. W. C. A. meeting next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

The Palladian society has amended its constitution so that all names proposed for membership now are balloted on by the entire society.

The Palladians are planning for their annual Thanksgiving feed and from present indications it will be more elaborate this year than ever.

The graduate club is considering the advisability of publishing a graduate magazine, containing the best work done by graduate students.

The Thanksgiving recess will begin at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening, November 29, and ends at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, December 4.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

"Whatever may be said to the contrary, good clothes increase the world's respect for him who wears them."

OVERCOATS

If you have ever worn an H. S. & M. overcoat you do not have to be told they are the finest overcoats money can buy.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

overcoats are stylish and durable, elegant in goods and making, richly lined and finished and full of satisfaction.

The prices are reasonable.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

The students, like the majority of citizens, are buying their coal of C. B. Gregory this winter. It will pay you to interview him.

Richard Neal, law '96, nominee of the republican party for county judge, carried Nemaha county at the late election by a good majority.

It's the best $1.50 fountain pen on the market; guaranteed—A. A. Waterman's. Stop in at Hanna's drug store, cor. 14th and O, and see them.

Acting Chancellor Bessey addressed the teachers of the high school on nature study Saturday morning. Miss Hayden of the art department also spoke.

The executive committee of the state academy of sciences will meet at the university on Saturday to discuss matters relating to the coming meeting of that organization.

All coal will go higher very soon if present conditions continue. It will pay every one to arrange for their winter's coal at once by seeing Charles B. Gregory at 1044 O street.

The thirteenth annual report of the state horticultural society is now in print. This volume is devoted mainly to the apple and includes many papers of great interest to orchardists.

The faculty ladies' club met with Mrs. Bruner, 2134 South Seventeenth street, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Professor Neigh gave a talk on methods of drawing and writing.

An anti-polygamy petition protesting against the Mormon congressman, Brigham H. Roberts, is being circulated in the university. It has already been signed by many members of the faculty.

Coach Branch of the foot ball team has instituted a new departure in foot ball work, namely, holding meetings of the team every evening at an early hour for the sake of giving secret instructions to the men in regard to new plays and the individual work connected with them.

History covers, full size, leather back, 15c each at Herpolsheimer's Book Dept. A full line of students' notebooks, history paper, theme paper, Faber pencils, lead pencils, etc., at lowest prices.

All alumni who have not already done so should send at once a statement of their present residence and occupation to Jay Barrett, who is compiling a list of graduates for the university authorities.

The annual charter day address is to be given by ex-Chancellor A. R. Benton, now of Butler college, Irvington, Ind. The observance of charter day in this university was inaugurated by ex-Chancellor Benton.

The debating association met Saturday evening and after some discussion decided that with the unexpected large registration for the preliminaries that it would be necessary to limit the time of each contestant to five minutes.

Hoop ball continues to be the sport royal of the gymnasium classes and some exciting games are seen upon the floor. The 1 o'clock class has organized a hoop ball team, which will enter into the inter-class contests.

The strength tests on the new dynamometer will be given on each Saturday after the foot ball season closes. Great interest is being taken in these coming tests among the strong men and some big figures are looked for.

The preliminary contests for the events to be given on next charter day have been postponed until after the foot ball season is over on account of the inability to obtain the baths for the contestants on Saturday afternoons.

The following books were received in the library last week: "Jack," Daudet, two volumes, illustrated; "Elsie Ven-