

JUNIOR LAWS WIN.

The junior law foot ball team left for Falls City on the B. & M. at 1:35 p. m. last Wednesday. On Thanksgiving day they played the Falls City eleven, winning by the score of 11 to 0. It was a very disagreeable, rainy day. It rained quite hard while the game was being played. In spite of the weather quite a number turned out to see the game, among whom were many university alumni. Twenty-minute halves were played. From the first play the law team seemed to have the best of the game. The law men played together better and after a few end plays and line bucks Douglas made a touchdown and kicked goal. The half ended with the ball in about the center of the field. In the second half Falls City put in some new men and played a much better game. They were given a few yards for off-side plays, which, together with good line bucking, put them to within two feet of the law team's goal. Here the Falls City team was held and the junior law team took the ball. Evans soon carried the ball about forty yards around left end. After a few more plays Larson made another touchdown on Falls City's fumbling. Douglas failed to kick goal. The feature of the game was the junior law team's end runs, Benedict, Evans and Thorp each making gains. The line-up was as follows:

Falls City.	Junior Law.
Humbarger L. E.	Morford
Bohrer	Thompson.
Wyatt L. T.	Wessel
Sherben L. G.	Richards
Hershey C.	McCracken
McFarland R. G.	Moran
Silvers R. T.	Larson
Fink-Ullig R. E.	Benedic
Fisher Q.	Morrison
Metz L. H.	Thorp
Scott F. B. Douglas (capt.)
Nulk R. H.	Evans
Referee, Culver; linesman, O'Connor.

SCRUBS WIN.

An interesting foot ball game was played Thursday between the second eleven of the state university and the Hastings college team on the college campus at Hastings. The game was won by the university, the score standing 13 to 0.

The day began raw and cold, with a light rain, but had cleared off considerably before 4 o'clock, when the game began. In consequence there was a good attendance, composed mostly of Hastings sympathizers.

Captain Hooper won the toss and chose the east goal, with the wind in his favor. Bailey kicked off to Waterman, who returned the ball to the center of the field. The university then took the ball by line smashes to within two yards of the Hastings goal. Here a Hastings player fell on the ball after a Nebraska man left it to take his place in line. Hastings claimed a fumble, which was allowed. On the next play Hastings was pushed back over her goal line for a safety, which gave Nebraska two points.

Hastings then braced up and held Nebraska's line bucks much better. The game became more interesting as the pigskin was forced up and down the field, first by one team, then by the other, but most of the time in Hastings territory. Nebraska then went after her opponents in earnest. Muntz made an end run for thirty-five yards. Nelson bucked the line for twelve more and then by a guard-back right play Tucky was pushed over the line for Nebraska's first touchdown. Goal was not kicked.

On the kick off Hastings by a good run of Broulette's carried the ball into Nebraska's territory, where the ball was lost on downs. Walton then took the ball and broke straight through the line for fifty yards. He passed Bailey, Hastings' sprinter, but was caught by Breed. Nebraska kept on toward the goal, but time was called and Hastings was saved the humiliation of another touchdown, with the ball within five yards of her goal.

On the kick off in the second half Hooper kicked the ball lightly and it was secured by Voss for Nebraska, fumbled, and then Hastings made some good gains, Bailey, Breed and Burgess each making gains through the Nebraska line.

Mantz, a few minutes before the close, turned his ankle and Anderson was put in. On the next play he downed Bailey for a loss of three yards, and Hastings was held on downs. A line buck was held by Hastings and then Anderson was sent around the end for twenty-five yards. In three more plays Nelson by a cross buck placed the ball behind Hastings' goal.
