

STAGG IN THE EAST.

Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago is in the east in search of base ball and track dates. He has already had considerable correspondence with the managers of a number of eastern teams, but has made no contracts. He will try to arrange dates with Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell, Brown and one or two other teams. Yale and Pennsylvania have already asked for games with the Maroons. After watching his candidates for a few days Stagg concluded that he was going to have one of the best base ball teams in the history of the university, and went at once in search of big game. He will likely arrange for entering a relay team in the Pennsylvania games in the spring, and may have some eastern track team come west. He also wants to have a series of base ball games on Marshall field with an eastern nine.

NEW EXTENSION CLASSES.

Plans are now being made to organize extension classes at the beginning of the second semester in the department of domestic science. In accordance with the plan adopted by the board of regents at their last meeting persons may be admitted to these classes on the recommendation of such organizations as desire to co-operate with the university in this work. Persons thus recommended are not required to pay the $5 matriculation fee at the university, but will be charged a fee of $3 to pay for food materials used. Three courses of twelve lessons each will be offered. The work will be given on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons.

ENGLISH CLUB MEETING.

The English club met last Saturday night at the home of Miss Quaintance, 515 North Thirteenth street. Three papers were read, respectively by Misses Fox and Wilson and G. V. Cortelyou. A feature of the later part of the evening was a literary game which showed considerable ability on the part of some of the members. Miss Wilson was most successful, however, in locating the quotations given. Conundrums, at which some bit quite cheerfully, became another pleasing diversion. Light refreshments were served at the close.

PRINCETON FOOT BALL PROFITABLE.

Disbursements—Games, $4,892.65; athletic supplies, $1,488.27; training table, $3,077.48; incidentals, $4,644.52; total, $14,102.92; credit balance to Princeton university, $8,691.21.

REGISTRAR'S NOTICE.

Every student is requested emphatically to bring to the registrar's office as soon as possible a slip of paper containing his name, address and such studies as he wishes to pursue the second semester, with the time of each recitation. Remember your deficiencies when you make out your list—first, in preparatory work; second, in college work.

Teacher—Tommy, where is the north pole?
Tommy—Don't know.
Teacher—You don't know?
Tommy—No'm. If Peary and Nansen and all those couldn't find it, how do you expect me to know where it is?

THE ATHLETE'S SOLOQUY.

To be or not to be, that is the question;
Whether 'tis pleasanter for me to study
The awful tasks assigned by insane professors,
Or to take gym, to make a mark in jumping,
And skip my classes daily. To fail—to flunk—
Just so; and though I flunk to go a foot
Above the rest in pole-vault, win the hurdle,
And the dashes—'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wished. To get a "C"—
To flunk, perhaps to fail—aye, there's the rub—
Oh, hang, just let her rub. I'll be no rubber.

CLIPPINGS.

I had a dream the other night,
When everything was still;
I dreamed that each subscriber came
Right up and paid his bill.

Little verbs of Latin,
Little roots of Greek,
Make the verdant freshman
Feel extremely meek.

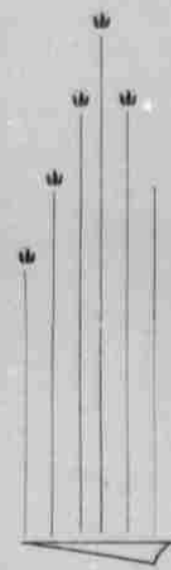

When a fellow gets a letter
From a maiden, he divines
Many a precious little secret
Written between the lines.

Funny, too, in Greek and Latin,
How we meet with like designs,
Strange how many happy meanings
Oft are read between the lines.

IT IS DANGEROUS TO NEGLECT A COLD.

Pneumonia is one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases. It always results from a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and perhaps prevent an attack of pneumonia. It is, in fact, made especially for that ailment and has become famous for its cures over a large part of the civilized world. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Can you afford to neglect your cold when so reliable a remedy can be had for a trifle? For sale by druggists.
