

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

University Book Store.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Phi Delta Thetas have pledged Henry Smith of Lincoln.

The Delta Gammas have initiated Miss Halle Wilson of Ashland, Neb.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.

Miss Herberta Jaynes has re-entered the university after a year spent abroad.

Chapel exercises were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Wharton last Thursday morning.

The Delta Gamma fraternity has formally pledged Miss Edna Harley, '03, of Lincoln.

Professor Barbour lectured at Waverley last Friday. His subject was "The Proposed National Park."

Dr. Sherman addressed the county teachers' association at Aurora, Hamilton county, January 26 and 27.

Seventy-five girls have been refused admission into the gymnasium classes on account of lack of room.

Miss Jeannette Dysart of Superior has come back to continue her work at the school of music this semester.

Dr. Sherman's new edition of Tennyson's "Princess" is just completed. It is published by Holt & Co., Chicago.

Fountain Pens, 14 kt. gold, at 50c, 69c and $1.00 each at book and stationery department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Northwestern line is the pioneer line to the Twin Cities. Double daily limited trains. Remember this line.

Forty men have reported for preliminary training for base ball. All players are urged to begin practice at once.

A. P. Childs of the "Times-Tribune" of Norfolk, Neb., was a caller at the university office in the early part of last week.

There are more advanced students this year in the German department than ever before in the history of the university.

Delta Delta Delta gave a tea Saturday for Miss Clara King Smith, who will be married February 24 to Janvier Woodard Jones.

Manager Howard will soon be ready to announce his schedule for base ball. He expects to have at least ten big games on the campus.

A bunch of botanical pamphlets has just been received by the department of botany from the colonial botanist of Queensland, Australia.

Have your clothes pressed and cleaned at the People's Sutorium. Suit pressed, 50c; pants pressed, 15c. Students' agency at The Co-Op.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. Room 314, third floor, Richards block. Phone 848.

Miss Susie Doane and Miss Grimm were voted into the Delian society Friday evening, and Miss Edith D. Mattoon sent in her resignation.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

Mrs. J. H. Miller will give an address before the Y. W. C. A. at their regular meeting next Sunday afternoon. All girls are cordially invited.

The chemistry department has just received an invoice of apparatus and chemicals for use in the new assaying classes just started the second semester.

At the business meeting of the Pershing rifles last Thursday night Sigurd Anker was elected president. Guy Barnes was re-elected vice president.

A number of the students have been taking advantage of the cold snap and skating parties of the most informal nature have been numerous all the week.

For history covers, history paper, note books, fountain pens and all other college supplies go to the book and stationery department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

Many students who carried eighteen hours of work last semester were considerably surprised when informed that seventeen hours was the limit for this semester.

Louis Goodwill, who left the university about five weeks ago, owing to the sickness of his parents at Tekamah, Neb., is again in Lincoln. He is not attending the university.

According to the librarians modern German literature is being much read by the students. There seems to be more demand for this now than for almost any other class of literature.

Within a few weeks the botanical department has received collections of specimens of fungi, aggregating two hundred and fifty species, and of algae (sea weeds), three hundred species.

C. L. Huff, S. R. Wills, B. W. Benedict and A. W. Gaines were initiated by Delta Upsilon last Wednesday evening. F. W. Hall of the Lincoln high school was formally pledged.

Miss Barr says there will be no interstate basket ball games played here this year, owing to the reluctance of the teams of neighboring states to compete with the girls of the university.

Professor Fossler has a plan in hand for converting Miss Heppner's room into a headquarters for the German department. Part of the room will be used for a study room and part for an office.

There are quite a number of "The Message to Garcia" and some students' directories in the Y. M. C. A. rooms and students desiring one or both can get the same by calling at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Miss Anna McClintic, '03, was called to her home at Burlington, Ia., last Friday on account of the sickness of her mother. She does not expect to return to the university before next September.

The department of botany has just received photographs of Professor Nelson of the University of Wyoming and of Professor Harper of the University of Wisconsin, both botanists of wide reputation.

At a special meeting of the athletic board Thursday evening the resignation of S. D. Clinton was accepted and T. J. Hewitt was given his place as track manager, with Bruce Benedict as assistant manager.

The Northwestern line and the F., E. & M. V. R. R. announce to the traveling public that they will make the low rate of $17.50 to Hot Springs, S. D., and return on February 6 and 20 and March 6 and 20.

On last Friday morning at the weekly musical held in the chapel the program was as follows: Piano solo, "Balade, G Minor," Grieg, by Miss Anne Stuart; duet, "Angel of Light," C. W. Coomb, by Miss Grace Reynolds and John Martin.

Professor Lyon attended institutes last week at Merna, Ansley, York and Tamora. He is illustrating his lectures with lantern slides of the views of the agricultural school and of those departments which are related to agriculture in the university.

"It is difficult for the world to believe that a man is any better than his clothes."

VARIETY

YOU get full value for your money when you buy the HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes. They are "ready-to-wear" clothes with all the advantages of fine merchant tailoring and none of its drawbacks. You get the style, the service, the good fit, the good looks, without the high price.

We have the H. S. & M. suits and overcoats in all sizes, in many styles and at various prices.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H S & M

TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

The young ladies of the Delta Gamma fraternity house were awakened early Tuesday morning by a man who was attempting to crawl through the back window. He was frightened away by a volley of shrieks which greeted his appearance.

While it is a fact that different dealers make claim to having the best coal on the market, we make no boast we cannot prove by letting the coal speak for itself. The Glen Rock coal at $5.75 a ton for soft coal burners cannot be beat. Gregory the Coal Man.

Miss Bertha Conde, one of the international college secretaries of the Y. W. C. A., who made so many friends among the university girls at her last visit to Lincoln during the state Y. W. C. A. convention last October, will spend a few days here the latter part of February.

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. mission study class for the winter term course on "Modern Apostles of Missionary Byways" was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms last Saturday afternoon. All interested in mission study are earnestly invited to join this class.

In the recent basket ball games played between the different cadet companies company B defeated company D 26 to 7, while company A defeated company C 9 to 5. Companies B and A have not yet decided when they will play the game to decide the championship of the battalion.

On account of the large amount of business to be done by the regents at their charter day meeting the proposed meeting of the university council has been suspended. The business which would otherwise have come before the council will be taken up at the commencement meeting.

No statistical tabulation has created more interest than that prepared by the registrar in reference to the religious status of the students of the university. There are many calls for copies of these tables and it is probable that they will be printed in the form of a bulletin before long.

In German XII Professor Fossler has taken up the study of Goethe's "Faust." Any one interested in the study of this masterpiece would be welcome in the class. Those who have no knowledge of German could provide themselves with translations. These, however, could receive no credit for work.

A new botanical journal has made its appearance and is now on file in the botanical department. It is called the "Journal of the New York Botanical Garden." It promises to be very useful and instructive, since its field appears to be that of plant physiology and its application to practical science.

Dr. Samuel Avery, '92, now professor of chemistry in the University of Idaho, reports that the regents have just made a large additional appropriation for chemical apparatus for his department. This coming so soon after his appointment is taken as a good indication that he is doing his work in a satisfactory way.

The university dramatic club, assisted by Mrs. Manning, gave an entertainment at the state asylum for the insane last Thursday evening. A farce, "The Fatal Message," by John Kendrick Bangs, was given by the club and Mrs. Manning read Kipling's "Recessional." About fifty guests from Lincoln were present.

Mr. H. G. Shedd has received a letter from Dr. F. W. Voos at Bracht, Rhineland, Germany, an old graduate of the university, who holds a diploma from a now extinct medical college. He says: "I practiced medicine in the