

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. Wente, dent st.
 Gregory the Coal Man.
 University Book Store.
 Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.
 James Franey has quit school until next semester.
 A new circular of the school of art is now in press.
 Full line of drawing papers at University Book Store.
 C. E. Norton, '95, is principal of the schools at Butte, Neb.
 Director Davison lectured Friday evening at Bennington.
 A few lockers still for rent. Call at University Book Store.
 Miss Maude Brush of Ashland has been pledged to Delta Delta Delta.
 Judge Maxwell of Fremont was a visitor at the university Saturday.
 J. R. Schofield, '88, now in business at Geneva, Neb., was in town Wednesday.
 W. J. Hemling of Arapahoe received a visit from his father a few days last week.
 You need a fountain pen. Better get a Waterman Ideal at the University Book Store.
 Ned Abotti, who was called home on account of the sickness of his father, has returned.
 Miss Ethel Galley of Columbus, a graduate of the school of music, is visiting Lincoln friends.
 J. C. Crawford has been compelled to leave the university on account of serious trouble with his eyes.
 Fountain pens, 14-kt. gold, at 69c and $1.00 each at book and stationery department, Herpolsheimer & Co.
 H. R. Fullmer, Alpha Tau Omega, a former student of the university, went to Tecumseh last week on a visit.
 Miss Edna Hyatt is now at Washington, D. C., employed as scientific artist in the department of agriculture.
 The Northwestern line is the pioneer line to the Twin Cities. Double daily limited trains. Remember this line.
 Ernest Wiggenhorn of Ashland and Earl Williams of York have been visiting at the Phi Kappa Psi house this week.
 Colonel Will H. Hayward of Nebraska City was in Lincoln Tuesday on business connected with his military command.
 R. E. Preston, '92, assayer for a British mining syndicate, is now located on the Askold island, twenty miles out from Vladivostok, eastern Siberia.
 Arrangements are now being made for a formal memorial service in memory of Dr. Amos G. Warner of the class of '85.
 Miss Kathicea G. Hearn, formerly an instructor in the Latin department at the university, is teaching in the Aurora high school.
 The faculty of the Lincoln medical college invited the preparatory medical society to witness a difficult operation last Saturday.
 Members of the eighth army club have begun practicing for the open army program to be given in the chapel early in March.
 Albert Hansen, '99, is now editor of the Harlan (Ia.) American. It is an eight-page, seven-column weekly and full of up-to-date news.
 M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. Room 314, third floor, Richards block. Phone 848.
 Miss Marguerite Galagher and Henry P. Nielson, who graduated on charter day also were given teachers' certificates, indicating that they had completed the course in pedagogy, which entitles them to a state certificate for teaching.

 Several of the university professors engaged in scientific work have been asked to become members of the academy of science of St. Louis.
 Interest in base ball is already becoming manifest. Over forty candidates have reported for various positions and indoor practice has begun.
 O. A. Wright, '97, is teaching in the high school at Lead, S. D. During the summer vacation Mr. Wright is employed by the Star stamp mill of Lead.
 The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.
 During the past two weeks farmers' institutes have been held at Ansley, York, Tamora, Merna, Fort Calhoun, Friend, Kenesaw, Arapahoe and Alma.
 We ask no one to take our word for it. Try the coal—it speaks for itself. The Glen Rock is especially adapted for soft coal burners. Gregory the Coal Man.
 The university senate held a meeting Saturday afternoon in which the "Harvard method" of stating the requirements for admission was discussed.
 Charles P. Storrs, '90, is now geologist for the Northern Pacific railway company and has in charge the survey of all the coal fields belonging to that system.
 The university is now buying all its coal of Charles B. Gregory (U. of N., '91). Why not buy your coal of him, too? The place is 1044 O street; the phone 343.
 For history covers, history paper, note books, fountain pens and all other college supplies go to the book and stationery department of Herpolsheimer & Co.
 A special meeting of the athletic board will be called next week for the purpose of electing a foot ball coach. White, who coached Missouri last year, is an eligible candidate.
 An eastern trip has been arranged for the base ball boys. The team will leave here May 5 and go through Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Indiana, returning via Kansas and Missouri.
 There are now twenty-two graduate students of the university taking work in the department of philosophy. Eleven of these are taking the subject as majors for the master's degree.
 Professor C. R. Richards of the department of mechanical engineering of the university has been appointed chairman of the committee on manual training of the Lincoln educational association.
 Rev. I. P. Ludden returned Saturday from a trip over the state attending farmers' institutes for some of the university professors who could not leave, owing to the many conventions being held in the city.
 Manager Howard says that Kansas, Missouri, Washburn college of Topeka and Hamline university of St. Paul, Minn., will play on our home grounds. It is probable that Minnesota and Iowa also will play here.
 The Northwestern line and the F., E. & M. V. R. R. announce to the traveling public that they will make the low rate of $17.50 to Hot Springs, S. D., and return on February 6 and 20 and March 5 and 20.
 Fred C. De Colty, instructor in French in the Omaha high school, gave a lecture in French last Friday morning in the university chapel. His subject was Victor Hugo, and was handled in a masterly manner.
 Professor H. W. Caldwell will lecture Friday evening, February 23, at

It Must Be Done

We must see the last of our elegant Fall and Winter stock of Men's Suits by March 1st, and in order to bring this about we are going to close our eyes to losses and give you an opportunity, such in fact as you never before have had to buy high grade Suits. We name prices below and tell you just what the goods are and what they are actually worth, but prices are meaningless things—you must see the goods, then you will fully appreciate our splendid offers.

$22.50 Men's Suits at $15.00

All of our heavy weight Suits that sold at $20.00 to $22.50 are included in this lot—nothing reserved.

$18.00 Men's Suits at $13.50

This lot gives you choice of any and all heavy weight Suits which sold at $16.00 and $18.00—no reserve.

$15.00 Men's Suits at $10.00

All that is left of our elegant lines of Fall and Winter Suits which sold at $15.00 will go in this lot—nothing reserved.

$12.50 Men's Suits at $7.50

This lot shows all that we have left in heavy weight Suits and will be sold just as above stated.

$10.00 Men's Suits at $6.98

In this lot we give you absolute choice of all heavy weight Suits which sold at $10.00.

Worsteds and Serges not included in this Sale.

+++

Armstrong Clothing Co.

Waverly, Neb., upon the subject of "Expansion." This lecture is one feature of the lecture course given there by the Y. P. S. C. E. society.
 John P. Harpham, '84, now located at Seattle, Wash., has been in Nebraska recently. He is attorney for several large corporations on the coast, among them the Pacific Steamship company, and an Alaskan railway.
 Professor Barbour has an article in Collier's Weekly on the Wyoming geological expedition of last summer and one on the use of the telephoto lens in the Photographer. Both are illustrated by views from Mr. Cornell's collection.
 J. W. McCrosky, '91, who is now chief electrician for the Buenos Ayres tramway company in Argentina, is on his way to visit his old home at Tecumseh. He will be at Lincoln and will probably deliver a lecture to the electrical students.
 John E. Marsh, '90, is principal of the schools at Atlanta. This is the second year that he has been teaching at that place. Last summer he was married and Mrs. Marsh is also teaching at the same school. He will return to the university again next year.
 A. J. Collett, a senior in the mechanical engineering department, has taken for his thesis "The Fuel Supply of Nebraska." This investigation will consist of making an exact kilmometric determination of the heating value of the principal coals sold in this state.
 V. G. Cornell, university photographer, has just shipped a large collection of views of Wyoming and the Bad Lands to the Carnegie university at Pittsburg. Smaller sets have been sent to the museums of Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Brown and Cornell.
 It is interesting to note that the University of Iowa has copied from our university the idea of having a news letters. It has been followed in every particular, excepting the name, which is changed to "University News Bulletin." Evidently the idea is a good one.
 At the last meeting of the athletic board it was decided that Nebraska should withdraw from the foot ball league with Kansas and Missouri. Nebraska will hereafter play Missouri and Kansas under conditions arranged by the managers, and shall not be bound down by any league rules.
 Bruce Benedict of the department of mechanical engineering will accompany Mr. Rhodes, the assistant general superintendent of the Burlington, on a trip to the Black Hills to determine the efficiency of some of the new celebrated Pittsburg locomotives, which have just been put in use on the Black Hills division.
 Students of the mechanical engineering department are carrying on a series of experiments to determine the efficiency of the engines now in use in the department. The loss of power due to friction is estimated by taking the difference between the amount of work done by the steam and the real amount of work accomplished by the engine.
 The musical program at chapel Friday morning consisted of a piano solo, "Du Bist Die Ruh," Schubert-Liszt, played by Miss Grace Smith; two soprano solos, "I Cannot Help Loving Thee," Cayton Johns, and "In the Woods," Robert Franz, sung by Miss Belle Warner, and a contralto solo, "The Workers," Gounod, by Miss Ethel Galley.
 The university has issued a bulletin descriptive of the school of domestic science, of which Miss Rosa Bouton is director. It calls attention to the work of this school and sets forth the advantages that will accrue to the young women who pursue the course of study.