MILITARY.

The following promotions were made last Wednesday in the cadet battalion; to be cadet Second Lieutenant Company A, S. Anker; Second Sergeant Company D, T. J. Hewitt; Third Sergeant Company D, Elmer Berry; Fourth Sergeant Company D, L. B. Stuhr; Fourth Sergeant Company B, C. A. McMaster; Fifth Sergeant Company A, A. F. Strahorn; Fifth Sergeant Company D, V. A. Henderson; Fifth Sergeant Company B, W. P. Wallace; Fifth Sergeant Company C, A. C. Lee; Corporal Company B, J. C. Lawler.

Guard mount practice for the season was begun last Wednesday, March 14.

The battalion will go to camp sometime in May. It is not decided yet where the encampment will be but it is thought either Fremont or Beatrice will be the chosen place.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Attention is called to the ruling of the faculty as per page 235 of calendar which requires that every student shall take a physical examination at least once a year. The various gymnasium classes having finished hours are now open to all other students.

The entries for the strength test contest will close May 1. All strong men should bear this in mind and help raise the standard of athletic men of Nebraska to an equal point with eastern schools. Last year of the fifty men chosen as the strongest college men twenty-one were from Harvard and twelve from Amherst. The highest score made was 1595 the lowest 1094.

First year gymnasium men will be given on April 21 a contest on Harvard series of elementary gymnastics. Cards giving list of exercises to be used in the contest will be furnished at the office of the physical trainer on Tuesday. Also on the same day will be given a contest in advanced gymnastics open to all university men. Exercises will be on the high and low horizontal bar, horse and parallel bars. Three sets of exercises are required two to be given and the third a voluntary exercise of three movements.

The out door pentathlon will be held on the campus April 7. The events to be contested are: pole vault, hammer throw, 100 yard dash, mile run, and running high jump.

The indoor pentathlon last Saturday was rather a spiritless affair. Only a small audience witnessed the contest and the experienced athletes as Jewett, the Andersons, Hewitt, Wallace, and Bullard being unable to contest no records were broken. Mantz won first place in securing the largest number of points which was 306.5. May got second 305.5. Kellogg, third 293.8. Those winning first places in events were: shot put, Mantz, 34.7 feet; running high jump, McComb, 5 feet, potato race, May 1 minute 50 seconds; pole vault, Kellogg 8 feet 10 inches; three broad jumps, Hoard 28.8 feet.

FRESCOES FOR THE LIBRARY.

The frescoes for the library of the State University of Illinois were unveiled last Tuesday in the presence of students, trustees and faculty of the university. The four composition subjects chosen typify the four principal colleges of that university, literature and arts, agriculture, engineering and science. "The Sacred Wood of the Muses" is the title of the first composition. It is a classical subject, containing about twenty-five figures, representing philosophy, poetry, music, and art. The studies for the landscape for this work were made in the garden of the Luxembourg and at Versailles. The scene represents the classic age and Plato, Homer, Aristotle and others are grouped, each with his followers, who are earnestly learning the lessons expounded by their worthy masters.
