Anyone thinking of becoming a stenographer should write at once for information about this new system.

The members of the battalion held a night shirt parade Wednesday evening. About two hundred students were in line. The library, chancellor's residence, various hotels, and the police station were visited. At the last mentioned place, trouble arose with police which for a time threatened to result seriously. The students were laboring under what they considered mistreatment from the police, and proceeded to retaliate. A charge made by the officers in the station was met with a solid front and repulsed. Several students received beaten heads, while one officer received a badly bruised leg. The cause of the trouble was the arrest of a student the previous week for snooting within the city limits.

CADET ENCAMPMENT.

The cadet battalion arrived at Beatrice Friday evening at 6:30, after a quick run on the special train. Camp Weeks had been marked out by the detail sent down in the morning. The officers' and cooks' tents were set up and supper was waiting. The camp is located in the Chautauque grounds in the northwest corner near the river. Each company has one row of tents. All face the east where a nice grove is located just outside the guard line. The pavilion is a short distance southwest of the camp. To the west is a high hill used as a drill ground. Friday night was very cold in quarters and the heavy dew dampened everything. Saturday was equally cold and dreary without any sunshine.

Camp Weeks is a mile and a half from town and very few people have visited the camp as compared to the number, which was expected.

The Y. M. C. A. of the university held services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the pavilion. Secretary J. S. Moore presided and President Marsh helped with the exercises. The cadet band furnished the music. Chaplain Mailey of the First Nebraska made the address which was very much appreciated by all.

When the cadets camped in Beatrice six years ago, considerable difficulty was experienced with a certain element of town fellows resulting in several black eyes. Sunday evening most of the cadets went up town after dress parade. It was found out about nine o'clock that a gang was waiting on a

The battalion broke camp Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and all the baggage was sent to the depot. The cadets marched up town and spent the remainder of the afternoon in walking about and visiting with friends. Dress parade was held on the high school grounds at seven o'clock. At eleven thirty the train was taken for Lincoln.

NEWS ABOUT THE CAMP.

Only a few failed in running the guard line.

RALPH ROPER,
Chairman of Class Day Committee.

Tuesday morning as a witness (?) at a trial in police court.

The company cooks have given good satisfaction and no complaint has been heard. The band gave concerts on Saturday and Monday evenings.

Corporal Barker sprained his wrist on Monday, afternoon while playing ball.

C. B. Bullard was sick at camp whenever drill was called. He also succeeded in running the guard line two or three times a day, which was a successful feat for a sick man.

Among the camp visitors were Wm. Hall, J. S. Moore, John Hill, I. P. Hewitt, William Thorne, C. W. May.

Several ball games were played. Company A was beaten by B with a score of 12 to 4. Williams pitched for B and Senger for A. Companies D and C played resulting in a score of 6 to 4 in favor of D. Collet of C and Shaw of D pitched. A team from the battalion played the Beatrice high school team on Monday. The university men won with a score of 13 to 4.

The main features of the game were the excellent pitching of Williams and McGladin, and the numerous errors on both sides. The diamond was under the regulation size causing several high throws.

The Beatrice band came to camp Monday, and with the cadet band gave a concert.

The paint has been removed from the Spanish cannon after considerable effort on the part of university authorities. From appearances it is about ready for another coat.
