MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Headquarters, Corps of Cadets, The University of Nebraska, October 26, 1900.

Order No. 7.

I. Each cadet will at once provide himself with the prescribed uniform and wear the same at all formations of the battalion on and after Nov. 26, 1900.

II. The uniforms shall consist of blouse, trousers, and cap, all of dark blue cloth, according to the pattern in the Commandants office. The uniform shall bear such insignia of rank as the cadets position shall entitle him to.

III. The Commandant hopes that the matter of uniforms will be attended to at once as it is greatly desired that the Battalion be completely uniformed by Thanksgiving recess.

First Sergeants will at once prepare two complete rolls of their companies one of which will be filed in the Commandants office, the other to be posted on the first sergeant's desk. A third roll showing the number of the rack and rine of each cadet will be posted on the company bulletin board in the Armory.

The Tuesday division of tactics class will recite in the First Sergeants room hereafter.

By order of Allan L. Brown,
Commandant Cadets.

The Palladian Debating Club held its regular meeting Saturday evening Oct. 27th. The attendance was considerably larger than that of any previous meeting and the club has settled down to hard work. The question of disfranchising the negro in the South was discussed in all its phases and most of those present took part.

Preliminaries to choose five men to represent the club in the final debates will be held the coming month.

Next Saturday evening, just before election, the subject of debate will be of a political nature. The principles of Democracy and Republicanism will be expounded by the students of either party and the discussion will be more general than usual. Everybody is invited to come out and hear men express their convictions upon the national issues of this campaign.

The Dellian Club met Saturday evening with a large attendance. The question resolved, "That the Philippines should have a free and independent government" was hotly debated by the speakers of the evening and, to the mind of all satisfactorily disposed of. Among alumni members present were Sim Mess and Harry Graybill. The question adopted for the discussion next Saturday is Resolved, "That the United States ought to interfere to protect the southern negro in the exercise of suffrage."

We carry only the cards of reputable men, and students will find represented in this column the best physicians and dentists in the city.
