

pink, the corridors in pink and fraternity colors. The ordinary was decorated with a large umbrella of red flowers, red carnations, the lights were shaded with red. There the supper of salads, sandwiches, pickles, olives, and coffee was served. Mesdames Woods and Edmiston presided. Punch was served by the Misses Dorance Harwood and Louise Burnham. In the dancing room were a profusion of Japanese lanterns; the walls were surrounded with palms, and American Beauties stood on the buffet. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Dr. White and Miss Howard led the grand march.

The following were the hostesses and guests: Chancellor and Mrs. Andrews, Dr. and Mrs. Streeter, Dr. L. A. Sherman; Messrs and Mesdames H. F. Lewis, H. P. Lau, F. H. Thursday, from 4 to 6, Delta Gamma gave a reception at the home of Mrs. Starrett, Fifteenth and K streets, to which members of other sororities, fraternities, university and town people were invited. In the receiving line were Misses Starrett, Howard, Tukey, Godfrey, Haggard, Ross, McClure, Foster, and Mrs. Woods. In the dining room Miss Cochrane and Mrs. Deutsche served, assisted by Misses Belle Hamilton, Marie Weesner, Lela Hunt, and Margaret Honeywell.

Thursday evening Delta Gamma resident and visiting members was entertained by Phi Delta Theta at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Raymond. The evening was a delightful one, the lawn was lighted by numberless Japanese lanterns and electric lights. A large canvas covered platform had been erected, and here, to the strains of a stringed orchestra, the merry crowd danced till a late hour. On the lawn was an immense pennant of Delta Gamma colors, but aside from this no color scheme was adhered to, save in the dining room, which was in light and dark blue and decorated in fleur-de-lis—the colors and flower of Kappa Kappa Gamma, of which Miss Eleanor Raymond is a member.

Friday afternoon both Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Delta Delta received the members of Delta Gamma and girls of other sororities. The Theta reception was held at the chapter house, Fourteenth and R. The lawn was decorated with American flags, Delta Gamma pennants, and beneath the trees many hammocks were swung. Mrs. F. C. Ladd, Misses Barr, Woodford, and Wirt received the guests. Mrs. I. S. P. Weeks and Mrs. Fling served cream. Misses Atwood and Agnew served punch. A mandolin orchestra furnished music throughout the afternoon.

Delta Delta Delta gave a reception in honor of Delta Gamma on Friday afternoon at the home of the Misses Bonnell, 1245 Q street. In the receiving line there were Misses Bonnell, Winifred Bonnell, Koehler, Mrs. Manahan, Misses Chadwick and Miller.

In the dining room the Delta Gamma colors were used to shade the lights, and that fraternity's flower, the bride rose, was used. Mrs. Frankish assisted by Misses Davenport and Roberts, served punch.

Flowers in profusion completed the decorations downstairs. On the second floor the Japanese room was very prettily arranged. Japanese fans, lanterns, umbrellas, curio boxes, and genuine Japanese wall decorations were used. Mrs. Rector, assisted by Misses Gund, Powers, and Grimson, all gowned in Japanese costumes, poured tea. Hagenow's orchestra furnished music.

Friday night the Delta Gammas gave a closing banquet at the Lincoln. The table was in the form of a Maltese cross, and eighty members were seated around it. It was brilliant with silver and cut glass. The table was entirely in green and white, no flowers being used but white roses. Each dinner card had a water color sketch of a college girl in scarlet and cream, waving a Delta Gamma pennant. An eleven course banquet was served. Miss Elizabeth Wing was toastmistress. The following toasts were responded to:

"Toujours la Femme," Jeanette Ostrander.

"Without Anchor," Edna Polk.

"Delta Gamma Hymns," Anges Merrill.

"Zeitgrist," Helen Brown.

"Skeleton Key," Dora Gooch.

"Delta Gamma, Juniata Williams.

"Golden Age," Grace Snitzer.

"Auf Wiedersehen," Alice Joiner.

Before separating all drank from a loving cup. Most of the delegates left Saturday afternoon or early evening.

KAPPA BANQUET.

Sigma chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma gave its annual banquet at the home of the Misses Bennett, 1502 L street, last Saturday evening. Blue fleur-de-lis were used in the decoration of the tables. The name cards at the plates were painted in water colors by Misses Mabel Bennett and Dorothy Griggs. Many flowers were received from friends. Miss Emily Jenkins, as toastmistress, called for the following toast list:

"The Beginning of Sigma," Mrs. A. G. Warner.

"Greeting from Boulder," Mrs. Albert Sechrist.

"Sigma of Today," Miss Mabel Hays.

"Opinions of a Pledgling," Miss Nancy Cunningham.

"Experience of a Freshman," Miss Jessie Outcalt.

"The Fraternity Bird," Miss Blanche Emmons.

The following active and alumnae Kappas were present: Mesdames Albert Sechrist of Denver, Davis of Omaha, Hall Abbott, H. H. Wilson, Emory Hardy, Lew Marshall, A. G. Warner, E. C. Folsom, E. A. Burnett; Misses Emily Jenkins, Nellie Griggs, Dorothy Griggs, Edna Howell, Ellen Gere, Grace Broady, Frances Gere, Shepard of University Place, Anna Hammond, Clara Hammond, Inez Manrid, Stella Kirker, Clara Dimmick, Maude Risser, Clara Houtz, Rosanna Bradt of Beatrice, Charlotte Whedon, Margaret Whedon, Blanche Emmons, Grace Bennett, Mabel Bennett, May Whiting, Adoloyd Whiting, Blanche Hargreaves, Louise Hargreaves, Emma Outcalt, Jessie Outcalt, Vine Gahan, Teressa Salle of Beatrice, Mabel Hays, Claire Funke, and Nancy Cunningham.

TRI DELTA LUNCHEON.

Mrs. John B. Horton gave a one o'clock luncheon to the active members of Delta Delta Delta last Saturday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Nannie H. Frankish. Covers were laid for twenty at three tables, with center pieces of the fraternity flower, the pansy. A dainty six-course luncheon was served. The young ladies enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon visiting.

NEBRASKA WINS GLORY

Kansas twirler, went in with the avowed intention of making a reputation for himself. He did it. Nebraska made fourteen safe hits, including four two-baggers, two three-baggers, and one home run. Kansas was clearly outclassed both in fielding and at the bat. The score:

Nebraska 3 1 0 0 0 2 0 5—11

Kansas 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 2—3

Hits—Nebraska 16, Kansas 4.

Errors—Nebraska 5, Kansas 7.

Earned runs—Kansas 2, Nebraska 8.

Two-base hits—Gaines, Hood, Raymond 2.

Three-base hits—Shrant, Townsend.

Home run—Bender.

Stolen bases—By Nebraska 9, by Kansas 3.

Struck out—By Gaines 2, by Allphin 5.

Hit with pitched ball—By Gaines 2, by Allphin 1.

Bases on balls—Off Gaines 2, off Allphin 2.

Double play—McC Campbell to Prey.

Time—1:55.

Umpire—Gramley.

At Topeka on Friday, Nebraska had to suffer her first defeat before a western college team this season. The Washburn pitcher was too much. Although in the game on home grounds he was forced out of the box, they were unable to find his slow curves. The game was almost featureless. The crowd interfered with the players, and together with the umpire succeeded in piling up the Kansans' score. The score:

Washburn 1 1 0 2 2 0 0 0 *—6

Nebraska 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 2—3

Hits—Washburn 7, Nebraska 3.

Errors—Washburn 6, Nebraska 2.

Batteries—Nebraska, Townsend, Bender and Doane; Washburn, Aitken and Mehl.

St. Mary's college was next on the list. For three straight years Nebraska has gone down before her, but this time the tide changed. The Irishmen couldn't solve the mystery of Gaines' slow curves. Only once was the ball knocked out of the diamond. But one error is charged up against the Nebraska team. In the second Doane brought in four scores by a long hit past right field. In the sixth three more were made on errors. The home team failed to score until the last inning. The score:

St. Mary's 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1

The final game of the trip was with the State Agricultural school at Manhattan. The game was too one-sided to be interesting. The farmers couldn't find Bender, and swung like hammocks at his curves. At no time were they in the game. The score:

Nebraska 0 0 4 0 0 3 0 3 1—11

K. A. C. 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 1—3

Hits—Nebraska 12, K. A. C., 9.

Errors—Nebraska 4, K. A. C., 6.

Batteries—Bender and Finlay, Owsley and Coldron.
