was served in the dining hall of the domestic science department. After partaking of the bounteous repast of good things the guests spent the remainder of the evening in singing and social conversation.

Those present were: Misses Bouton, Fossler, Parks, Montgomery, Hartzell, Stella Hartzell, Quaintance, Sparks, and Ames, and Messrs. White, Hiltner, Thatcher, Sims, Nikaido, Nelson, Vavra, Washburn, Rose, Buckley, Walker, Shirrod, Strahorn, and Antes.

THE PAN HELLENIC

The Pan-Hellenic hop was held at the Auditorium last Friday evening. Over one hundred couples were present, greatly enjoying the last party of the year. Fraternity pennants were used in the decorations of the hall. The committee on arrangements were Mr. E. W. Seacrest, chairman; Mr. H. H. Roberts, master of ceremonies; Messrs. R. C. Pollard, W. H. King, W. H. Edmisten, O. W. Everett, L. B. Stuhr, F. M. Sanders, F. P. Manchester, H. T. Stark, E. W. Hoffnell, and D. H. Homan.

DELIAN GIRLS ENTERTAIN

The Delian girls entertained the boys of that society at 1436 S street on last Friday evening at their annual "feed." This was the result of the program contest in which the judges decided that the boys could talk the best, so the girls must cook and feed them. Miss Susie Doane as toastmistress called upon the following:

"Delian Girls," Mr. Boomer.

"Delian Boys," Miss Countryman.

"Congratulations," Miss Pillsbury.

"Beauty Versus Brains," Mr. Batie.

"Some Stand Betwixt Love and Duty," Mr. Morrill.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," Mr. Garrett.

"Till We Meet Again," Miss Willaras.

SNEAK DAY

Senior sneak day came Friday as announced. All seniors were prohibited from attending classes, although some evidently forgot this. A crowd of seniors assembled at Miss Anthony's home, 1025 G street, and proceeded from there to Lincoln park. A spread was prepared under the trees. After lunch the class assembled and adopted the class song. Then they presented a mock opera in the theatre. As no juniors appeared to entertain them, the seniors then started back for town about four o'clock, with their flag flying from the car. Several seniors stayed with President Swenson to guard the flag while the others departed to their respective homes.

SIGMA XI INITIATION

The honorary society of Sigma Xi held its annual initiation ceremony Wednesday night. The following new members were inducted into the society: From the senior class, Adolph Shane, A. B. Smith, E. G. Woodruff; graduate school, Carrie A. Barbour, G. G. Hedgcock, D. C. Hilton, Fred Kuhlman, J. J. Thornber, F. E. Watson; from the faculty, F. E. Clements.

MINNESOTA NEXT SATURDAY.

The game with Minnesota will be played next Saturday. Local baseball enthusiasts look for a close contest. Minnesota beat Iowa and Notre Dame. Nebraska beat Iowa and played a close game with Notre Dame, so close that the Notre Dame captain, after having two pitchers knocked out of the box, had to put in Fleet, their star man, in order to save themselves from defeat. Among the seven leading college teams of the northwest Minnesota ranks about fourth this season.
