UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA,

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

The University of the State was opened for the second year September 12, 1882, under favorable conditions, and thus far has been prosperous and successful.

PROFESSORS.

The Faculty, at present, is composed of seven Professors, skilled in their several departments of instruction.

ADMISSION.

Students of both sexes are admitted to the University on passing examination in the common English branches, if entering the Latin School; or in studies of advanced classes, if claiming an advanced standing.

TUITION.

Tuition in all departments is FREE. There is an entrance fee of $5. Books are furnished at cost.

APPARATUS, Etc.

The Institution is liberally supplied with Apparatus, Cabinet, Library, and all acci-dential facilities for illustrating the subjects taught. The Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus is especially large and valuable.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

The Agricultural College is now open, and furnishes a full course of instruction running through four years, or a partial course in practical agriculture, requiring one year. The completion of the full course entitles the student to a degree.

Boarding is obtained at reasonable rates in private families, or by renting rooms. The expense may be reduced to $2 or $3 per week. At present boarding in families is from $4 to $5 per week.

CALENDAR.

The Fall Term began Thursday, September 12.
The Winter Term will begin Thursday, January 2, 1883.

Correspondence is solicited by the Chancellor from those intending to enter College.

The health of our state and the facilities offered in the University, should be strong inducements for those seeking health and advantages for education.

For circulars and other information respecting the University, address
