

—A little slip of paper, undoubtedly intended for our good looking janitor, was picked up in the hall the other day, and handed to us. We were quite affected by the tender sentiments which were profusely written thereon. And yet, after all girls, this is nonsensical. If we find any more of these poetical effusions lying around the University, we shall have to publish them. This thing must be stopped.

EDUCATIONAL.

We would be pleased to publish short items of State educational news. Many can assist us by sending the desired information.

From all parts of the State, we hear of school exhibitions. We think it would be a good idea for all teachers to have an exhibition, showing the work done, and the progress made by scholars during their administration as teachers. Such entertainments are a source of stimulus to the pupils and vary in a measure the monotony of school life.

It is estimated that the various gifts to educational institutions amount to about $1,000,000 per year.

It having been suggested that county superintendents should be nominated by a special convention and not by the usual nominating conventions, Ex-Supt. McKenzie suggests through the columns of the Lincoln Journal, the following topic for discussion at the coming meeting of the State Teachers' Association:

"That the several directors of the school districts in each county be requested to meet at the county seat on the first Tuesday in August, to put in nomination a candidate for county superintendent, and also to express by resolution their ideas of the propriety of paying for visiting schools, and stating, also, the amount of
