

THE High School contains a lively letter about the University from Dan. Wheeler.

"WHOA, Emma," is a plagiarism. Matthew Prior has the couplet,

"Oh day! the fairest one that ever rose.

Period and end of anxious Emma's woes."

A committee of the faculty, consisting of Prof's Church, Aughey and Hitchcock are revising the catalogue. It will be out in its new form next month.

BOTH the Palladian and Union societies have favored the Hesperian with standing "ads" which will be mutually beneficial. Lets hear from the Entre Nous.

THEY have an oratorical machine up at the Tichenor that has only to be started to grind out eloquence without limit. Get a megaphone and let the town enjoy it.

THOMPSON & Bro., not to be behind the weather, have refitted their ice cream parlor to be used as an oyster saloon. This firm is always up with the times.

THE favorite resort of students and others in search of a pleasant place in which to eat a dish of oysters served in first class style, is at Thompson & Bro.'s

Prof Emerson has set the Junior class to reading the testament. The boys think it some new work by a German author, and the novelty of the thing induces them to read it with avidity.

PROF. Stadter is painting a life size portrait of Nebraska's next Governor Albinus Nance. Nance is a fine looking man and the Prof. a fine artist so of course the picture is a fine one.

A NEW student has arrived at the College Farm, Allen Culbertson by name, oldest son of Prof. H. Culbertson. The young gentleman will confine himself at present to the study of infantry tactics.

ONE of our Senior Sub-Freshmen is in the habit of taking a kitten to Society. We don't know whether it is affinity or a desire for intellectual companionship that promotes the congeniality, "there is no accounting for tastes" as the old woman said when she kissed the cow.

A PETITION is being circulated among the students asking the faculty to open the library in the forenoon. We hope the faculty will find it possible to make this very desirable change.

WE noticed D H Mercer's name on a defeated ticket at the last Republican primaries. The joke of the thing is that Dave is a double-dyed Democrat and has yelled about Republican fraud as long and as loud as anybody.

YOUNG LADY: (in the exuberance of her joy at meeting a Prof. who has been away) "Oh, how do you do! I hope you have enjoyed your absence as much as we have!" That y. l. had better look out for her term standing.

MISS Rogers is preparing an Operetta "The Schneewitchen" or "Snowdrop" be rendered by Lincoln amateurs. Several students are engaged for prominent parts. Although composed by Grimm it will not be a grim affair.

ONE of the Profs. while explaining the theory that we are half an inch taller in the morning than in the evening, was rather nonplussed by a Soph.'s saying that he knew men who got fearfully high in the evening sometimes.

PROF. Church has received the sad news that his wife and son are lying at the point of death in Munich, Germany. The Prof. started for Europe, Friday, attended by the hopes of us all that the hand of affliction may not be laid upon him.

CHANCELLOR Fairfield has been invited to deliver the Commencement address before the Iowa Industrial College. Their Commencement occurs in Nov., and as that is a very busy month with our University he was obliged to decline.

PUBLIC exercises by the Latin School will be given every month this term to consist of the best five Essays and best five Declamations that have been delivered at their Rhetoricals. Now young ladies and gentlemen you have the floor.
