

your own head," he said; and then he wished he had died a thousand years ago.

A gas clock has been placed on exhibition in England. The motive power is hydrogen gas produced by the action of sulphuric acid and water in a zinc globe. As the gas is generated, it raises a glass bell cover, which, as it rises, moves a lever which controls the hands of the clock.

Local News.

How lonesome.

Three months vacation.

Read "The Royal Path of Life."

What are you going to do during vacation?

"The Royal Path of Life" is worthy of a place in every home.

Students will find all their Text-books at the Book Store of Fox & Struve.

The announcement is made that "sweet sixteen" means a pound of sugar, avoridupois.

Flowers were scarce this Commencement; every yard and all the green houses were exhausted and then many were unable to get as many as they wanted.

Go to Fox & Struve's Book Store for your Text-books and Stationery.

Every student should have a copy of "The Royal Path of Life."

A. H. Waitt, opposite the Post Office has a very desirable line of Boots and shoes, and offers them cheap enough.

Examine the stock of Corsets, Laces, Buttons and Hoseing at the Little Store on 11th St. The prices will surprise you.

The Editors of the STUDENT extend their thanks to Mr. Mercer for many favors shown in preparing the present number. He has helped very materially in reporting Commencement exercises. Thanks.

The Palladian Society have elected the following officers for next term. Pres., H. K. Wolfe; Vice Pres., Milton Guy; Critic, C. C. Chase; Sec., H. W. Caldwell; Treas., P. M. Hannibal; Cor. Sec., H. W. Olmstead; Chorister, Anna Schuckman; Usher, Geo. McLean.

"The Royal Path of Life" would be a nice present to a friend.

For Groceries go to L. Meyer in his new quarters on the east side of the Square.

The University Union will be conducted next term under the direction of the following officers. Mr. N. Z. Snell will hold the gavel. Vice Pres., Miss Minnie Williams; Secretary, J. S. Bridenbaugh; Critic, B. C. Arnold; Treas., Miss Jessie Parker, Cor. Secretary, Miss Carrie Palmer; Historian, Miss Aldrich; Sargent-at-arms, Mr Hackney.

On the afternoon of the 10th, the cadets drilled before the Regents. They went through the manual of arms, and marched around the campus with heads up, and little fingers on the seams of their pants, and then went through the skirmish drill. Twenty rounds of cartridges were fired by way of punctuation marks, and, on the whole, the Regents were well satisfied with the work of Lieut. Dudley during his term as Professor of Military Tactics.

At the Little Store on Eleventh St. you will find a fine assortment of Ruches, Corsets, Dress Buttons. Torchon and Breton Laces, all at popular prices.

DON'T FORGET when you want any thing in the Grocery line to call on W. W. English, west 11 st., near N. The best regads of Tobaccos and Cigars on hand. Good goods and satisfaction or no trade.

The HESPERIAN STUDENT Association met, June 10th, to consider the resignation of Miss Judkins, Secretary of the Association. The resignation was accepted with a vote of thanks for the able