

Among the editors of the Yale Literary, appointed for the coming year, is the son of Secretary Evarts, the founder of the magazine.

The students at Asbury, at the late election, voted for six of the alumni, including governor, lieutenant governor, congressman and state senator. Other graduates were candidates in other districts of the state.

Locals.

"Another 'mash!'"

"Do you want to die?"

For Holiday goods go to Turner.

Full line, latest styles at Ewing & Co's.

Nobby college caps at Ewing & Co's.

For Holiday goods go to Turner.

You will find bargains in everything at Turners'.

Books and stationery for the students at Fox & Struve's.

Wilson Bro.'s shirts are sold by Ewing & Co.

Custom made suits, and ulsteretts at Ewing & Cos.

Students will find all the books at the bookstore of Fox & Struve.

Holiday styles in silk, stiff & soft hats at Ewing & Co's.

The Cadets have concluded not to inflict the poor Plattsmouth people.

Nobby ulsterettes and overcoats at Ewing & Co's.

Turner invites you to call and see his fine line of Holiday goods.

"Plenty to do" is the song most popular with our students this term.

The celebrated Marble Head 5ct. cigar at Ryan Bros. Red Front Grocery.

Students get a discount of ten per cent at Ewing and Co's.

Students are invited to call at Ewing & Co's. for nice goods and low prices.

Several students contemplate swinging the "birchen rod" the coming winter.

Elegant fine neckwear and fancy hose at Ewing & Co's.

Go to Sunday School and you will be good—but you'll lose your pie.

For style and make up of goods, Ewing & Co. lead the clothing trade.

Have you seen the "Obolisk" shirt? She is a beauty.—Kier, the Hatter.

The finest vases and toilet sets you ever saw may be seen at W. J. Turner's.

Large assortment, latest styles of silk handkerchiefs at Ewing & Co's.

My line of neckwear is of the latest style and very desirable.—Kier the hatter.

All the latest novelties in neck-wear & fine furnishing goods at Ewing & Cos.

Was Lord Bacon mean or unmean? that is the question.

If you need anything in the way of cigars and tobaccos go to R. Herminghaus on O street, opposite the Academy of Music.

The class in Elementary Physics has about completed the work of the term.

New styles in Windsors scarfs and handkerchiefs to match.—Kier the Hatter.

For Holiday goods go to Turner.

It will pay any one to visit our store when seeking for Holiday presents.—Kier the hatter.

"The new University Catalogue will probably be published within the next thirty days."

"Bricks Without Straw" By the Author of "The fools errand," just out, For sale at Fawel's.

For the remainder of the term Prof. Church will continue his lectures, before the Junior class, on Philology.

Ewing & Co. have the finest stock of clothing and gents furnishing goods west of Chicago.

Be ye therefore perfect even as the members of the Chemistry class are perfect—in their examinations.

Visit Kier's hat store. He has a large and elegant stock of hats and furnishing goods.

Go with the rush to Ewing & Co's popular clothing house for latest styles and lowest prices.

All of two Seniors accompanied Prof. Aughey on his trip to Ponca. They report progress.

Large invoice of neck-wear from New York just arrived at Ewing & Cos. emporium.

For Holiday goods go to Turner.

We are making a big display of elegant and useful goods for Holiday presents.—Kier the Hatter.

Students, you are invited to call at T Ewing & Co's clothing emporium for fine clothing and gent's furnishing goods

The Professors all use the celebrated Havana-filled cigar manufactured by Woltemade & Wolf. Students try them.

Notwithstanding that so many were absent from town, both societies held their regular meetings last Friday evening.

Woltemade & Wolf's is the place to go, if you want a Meerschmum or Briar Pipe, or any variety of smoking or chewing tobacco.

At Ewing & Cos Clothing emporium, you can always find a complete stock. Latest styles and lowest Prices.

The society contest which was to occur the tenth of December will probably be postponed until the first of next term. The contestants cannot get ready.

The "Obolisk" Shirt is the best made, best fitting shirt in America. Seeing it will convince you of the fact.—Kier has them.

As an illogical sequence of a little squib in last issue we received the ungrateful and scathing sarcasm of a—well, neither Senior, Junior nor Freshie.

We have some specialties in shirts, collars, cuffs and silk handkerchiefs, not to be found in any other house in Lincoln.—Kier the hatter.

Have you tried any of that Alpha Brand of Flour sold by Hermance & Cook. It rises as if by magic; makes sweet tempered wives and kind husbands.

It is suggested that a subscription paper be circulated for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a new door for the Palladian stove.

Ladies! The Little Store makes a specialty of fancy handkerchiefs, novelties in neckwear, etc. It will pay you to visit it and get the low prices.

This is the sage remark of a stalwart Senior: "It is impossible to adopt socialism in this country; but if it was possible, it could not be done."

I have some especially new styles in Hats, Caps, Underwear, Shirts, Collars and neckwear not to be found in any other house in Lincoln.—Kier the hatter.

One of our students has turned missionary. The other day he offered to steal kindling wood the rest of the year for a friend of his, if he would join the church

A new word has been invented by an ingenious student; when asked if he used a pony in the study of Plato he was indignant at the affront. He calls it a bicycle

Our German instructor did not think that his class had very much to give thanks for and consequently assigned a lesson to the class for Friday.

We could not see any difference in prices from former years at S. Schwab's store. He appears to sell as cheap as he did last year. It will pay you to give him a call.

As the classical Seniors approach the time when they must bid good bye to the study of the Greek, many bitter tears are shed. "We long, oh, we long to see them!"

Boys, go to David Mays and get some of those fine silk handkerchiefs. He also has the best assortment of neck wear, and a fine lot of the latest styles of New York Hats.

Several students who were not so fortunate as to take their Thanksgiving recess out of town assembled at the Dormitory and had a very pleasant sociable Thursday evening.

Eureka! Eureka! Hermance & Cook have moved into their new store in Richards' Block, and are disposing of their groceries so cheap and rapidly that every body buys.

Every day that the weather is too inclement for out-door drill, Lieut. Webster lectures to the Cadets on military subjects. We find them very interesting and instructive.

Hermance & Cook keep a full stock of Groceries, California Fruits, fresh, dried, and canned. Give them a trial and take our word for it, they will not be found wanting.

During the snow-storm the other day the surveying class was engaged in computing the distance between the University and the Capitol. That's right boys, learn to endure inclement weather.

Some indigent negroes, the other day, convinced our Democratic friends that the war was a failure, by begging five cents to get themselves something to eat, saying that servitude was preferable to slow starvation. There are few rules that have no exceptions.

The miss guided youth who attended a leap year party not long since is concluded to be his own guide henceforth. He was kept out in the cold too long at his father's gate.

Benj. Franklin's sage remark that when ever he saw any one with a cane he took him to be infirm, lame or a fool ought not to obtain in these degenerate days. For too many of our number are thus.

A Soph has shaved off his mustache. From our experience, we would advise him to let it grow again as quickly as possible. This cold weather is more than one can stand without some facial protection.

Prof. Chamberlain is giving the students an opportunity for a free elocutionary "dile" every week, to those so inclined. Several are taking advantage of the chance to develop their powers of expression.

The old friend of the students, Dr. S. M. Weller, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, now of Morrison, Ill., has been visiting Lincoln, and preached at the Pres. church, Nov. 21, morning and evening.

The ice on Salt Creek for the past two weeks has been very good, and the students seemed disposed to profit by it. No more healthful exercise can be found and we challenge any one to invent a more destructive lesson-killer.

Several Seniors have concluded that Phrenology is a true science and are waiting anxiously for a one horse Phrenologist to come along to tell them what they are good for. This will decide their destiny beyond appeal.

About half the students, as far as can be judged, spent their Thanksgiving recess at home. A very thankful crowd they were too. But those who stayed in town were very well satisfied that the vacation was no longer.

Prof.: "Which is the most delicate of the senses?" Soph.: "The touch." Prof.: "Prove it." Soph.: "When you sit on a pin—you can't see it—you can't hear it—you can't taste it—you can't smell it; but it's there.—Ex.

A Soph. spending the afternoon in the Library exclaimed with animation: "that singing up stairs is just as sweet as all get out, and if the performers don't 'git out' pretty soon—." The rest was lost in a volley of angry looks and sophomorical grimaces.

Is the Students Lecture Association ever to remain dead? It is high time that something was done. There has not been a single lecture in the city this season. The first society in the field will have control of the lectures of the winter. Let some active student get up a forensic booll.

And now the political cauldron begins to effervesce. Candidates for society emoluments are as numerous as students on a circus day, and patent button holes are in demand. The man who has the