

Locals.

—Ridentum dicere verum
Quid vetat?

—Hon. Sat. 1.

Coffins for three!

Students' supplies at Fawell's.

New goods at Barkley & Briscoe's.

Large stock new books at Fawell's.

Novelties in fine stationery at Fawell's.

"Are you a member of the Y. M. C. A.?"
 —Lichty.

Reversible overcoats at Ewing & Co's emporium.

Downs & Webster sell hard and soft coal. Give them a call.

Call at Ewing & Co's emporium of fashion for fine clothing.

All the students go to Fox & Struve for their books and stationery.

Professor Hitchcock has been made dean of the academic faculty.

A goodly number of matriculations have been made this semester.

Go and see M. H. Gustin to get good harness or buggies, on 11th street.

Two more elections like the last, and the STUDENT will be clear of debt.

Preserve your natural teeth by having them attended to early by Dr. Way.

Buy your boots and shoes at the B. B. store, Tenth street between P and Q.

As yet nothing has been made public in regard to the observance of Charter Day.

All the goods found in a first-class gents furnishing house, at Ewing & Co's.

The campus walks are simply delightful. Something should be done at once.

Nobby line of scarfs just received at Ewing & Co's mammoth clothing house.

For pure fresh made candy call at the Candy Kitchen, 12th street, Little's new block.

This year a circular will be issued by the academic faculty instead of a catalogue.

Small pox gave us a subject of talk for a week or so, but the scare has quieted down now.

It pays to buy all your boots, shoes and slippers of O. W. Webster, O street, Academy of Music.

Students will find everything they need in the way of stationery and text books at Fox & Struve's.

President Pickard, of Iowa University, will deliver the address before Nebraska University next June.

The Church is the place we would bury our dead.—Emerson.

The STUDENT's definition of "bedlam:" Fourteen girls in the reception room beneath, all talking at once.

Students are invited to call at T. Ewing & Co's emporium, where they will receive the best goods at reduced prices.

No society last Friday evening on account of examinations. The Palladians indulged in an old-fashioned sociable.

It is reported that the Union society is preparing a Greek play and will hang out with it at the Opera House next month.

It is darkly hinted that H. W. Olmstead, Sr., was recently seen lugging a pair of skates toward the noble Salt river. Can it be possible!

Prof. Emerson has the best notice yet. He is veritably a double header. The Omaha Bee speaks of "Professors Emerson and Harrington.

"Julius Seaser" was the manner in which a Freshie co-ed spelled the great Roman's name in examination the other day. Oh, Seaser!

At the roller skating rink. "May I go home with you now?" he asked. "As soon as mother is ready," was the reply. He disappeared.

The flaming sign "Small Pox!" ornamented the door of Prof. Emerson's room one day last week. It pleased the young gentlemen wonderfully.

The Mechanics class had not a little sport over peculiar problems on the propositions relating to "couples." They called them the couples' propositions.

The Webster meeting was one of the most successful of the new year in the Palladian society, but the prize debate scheme seems to have fallen through.

The telephone in Chancellor's office is to be continued and George will have the pleasure of running the machine a little while longer, alarm clock or no.

Professor Collin will hereafter be known as Professor of Chemistry and experimental physics. Chas. N. Little is tutor in mathematics and civil engineering.

Every student will now be required to take lessons in elocution for at least one-third of the academic year as a full study for five days weekly,—or its equivalent.

The Junior class in Physics will be taught by Prof. Collin this semester. The class are happily over the most annoying part of the book, the treatise on mechanics.

Nine hundred dollars have been appropriated for the college farm, of which $200 is for student labor, $475 for the pay ment of notes, and the rest miscellaneous.

The man with the foot ball subscription paper is going the rounds. Contribute your mite, or you might be left out when the playing commences. That would be mighty bad.

Spring goods will arrive daily now. If you want nobby clothing this spring and at bottom prices, call and inspect the magnificent stock at the Phoenix One Price Clothing Hall.

An amendment to the HESPERIAN Constitution providing for one editor in chief, two associates and two locals, was rather forcibly "sat down on" at the meeting of Saturday night.

He,— "The library is to be open in the mornings with Mr. Piper in charge."

She,— "Oh, won't that be splendid!"

He,— "What,—the library or Mr. Piper?"

She,— "Both."

Our subscription books are now in charge of Will Jones, who will attend to all business in that line. The office is open every afternoon from one until four. Call and bring the $s.

We won't tell who it was, but she gave her older sister away dreadfully by saying that she had caught her, the other evening, reading up the marriage service in the Episcopal prayer book.

Elections, examinations, and investigations have sadly broken into solid study since the STUDENT last appeared. The University is now settling down to its usual amount of work.

The Y. M. C. A. of University students have been granted the use of a room in the University for their meetings. This is, provided there will be no expense or detriment to the college.

Won't Prof. Aughey be surprised when he gets back to find what funny changes have happened in the University! He will have a "who's been here since I's been gone" sort of a look.

Phoenix to the front! The first new spring goods just arrived. Call if you want to see the newest nobby stiff hats just received from New York by express. Phoenix, Ot. bet. 11 and 12.

The Regents, while here, all took occasion at different times and to different members of the STUDENT staff, to compliment this paper. They considered it, so they said, an exemplary and unusual college journal.

The chair of Didactics in the College of Literature and Arts has been instituted, and Prof. Thompson installed in it. Didactics is from the Greek didasko, to teach, and means the art or science of teaching.