

Locals.

—*Ridentum dicere verum
Quid vetat?*

—HOR. SAT. 1.

Charter day.
New goods at Barkley & Briscoe's.
Large stock new books at Fawell's.
Novelties in fine stationery at Fawell's.
Charter Day exercises in the Chapel this evening.
Blue neckties are all the rage in the University. Aesthetic.
Special prices to students for furniture Hardy's, on 10th street.
All the students go to Fox & Struve for their books and stationery.
Valentines will fly to-day. We are glad to see an improvement in styles.
The Palladian-Doane literary contest will probably take place in April.
A. P. Fair has gone to Columbus to work for a life insurance company.
Go and see M. H. Gustin to get good harness or buggies, on 11th street.
Preserve your natural teeth by having them attended to early by Dr. Way.
Buy your boots and shoes at the B. B. store, Tenth street between P and Q.
For pure fresh made candy call at the Candy Kitchen, 12th street, Little's new block.
Prof. Aughey was here three hours last week. He is not here now. He is in Omaha.
Give a boy address and accomplishments and will have the key to palace doors.
There is not a member of the University Faculty that ever sports a stovepipe hat. Fact!
Palladian debate next week: Resolved That Canada should be annexed to the United States.
Seventy-five demerits at a single blow shows that the Faculty knows how to discipline after all.
Everybody and his girl will attend the entertainment in the Chapel to-night. Something rich, rare and racy is promised.
Our local slipped off to Omaha, Monday, when the cry for copy was at its height. He is to be scalped on his return.
The Y. M. C. A. meets on the evening of Thursday instead of Wednesday this week. Members should bear this fact in mind.

Students' supplies at Fawell's.
"Now, Mr. President, I have had a little experience in this Mormon business."—Dryden.
A Commercial restaurant bill of fare had written upon it the other day "chocolate, 10 cents."
It pays to buy all your boots, shoes and slippers of O. W. Webster, O street, Academy of Music.
Students will find everything they need in the way of stationery and text books at Fox & Struve's.
There is talk among the upper class men of organizing a Greek letter society in the University.
The librarian has been bothered by Freshmen asking him if "Dean" was Stanley's first name!
The debates are lively nowadays, as they should be. Are our societies essay clubs? No, they are debating clubs.
Essays were due last Friday. The usual number of delinquents were awarded demerits by the kind hearted Prof.
Junior reads—"Tiburno in gurgite mergis mare caput his terque"—"Soak your head in the Tiber two or three times."
"Why do girls kiss each other, while boys do not?" Because girls have nothing better to kiss, and the boys have.
The Unions debated the suicide question at their last meeting, and decided that it is justifiable only in love affairs.
The boys from the college farm should be well prepared to debate polygamy. They are expected to know all about husbandry.
B. F. Marshall, our "business manager," is now connected with the State Journal. He still controls the city soliciting of the STUDENT.
A committee has been appointed to make some arrangement by which Nebraska can join in the inter-state contests of the west.
The foot-ball has come. It is a daisy. It is made of leather. The boys now limp. A box of St. Jacob's Oil is sent out with every foot-ball.
Charter day programme in the chapel to-night (Wednesday.) Bring your girl and her mother and spend a pleasant and profitable evening.
The proceeds of the Charter Day exhibition this evening will go to the STUDENT association. Everybody go and help off the STUDENT debt.
Miss Kimball, the new music teacher, favored the Palladians with a charming song last Friday. Miss Kimball will win her way here with that sweet voice.

Clyde Barnard was up the other day to see—well to see. He looks as hearty as—well as. He is now the principal of the Firth school on a princely salary.
These are glorious days, are they not? Fine for foot-ball, fine for base ball, fine for moonlight strolls, almost any kind of athletic, aesthetic or atheistic exercises.
Presents to the Faculty of the University from the students are forbidden, and they are required to decline the acceptance of them if tendered.—Rules of the Board of Regents.
He was a freshie, but as he had read the revised catalogue all through, quite mastered it, he thought, and so asked his senior friend, "You study Pluto, this term, I believe?"
Spring goods will arrive daily now. If you want nobby clothing this spring and at bottom prices, call and inspect the magnificent stock at the Phoenix One Price Clothing Hall.
Oscar Wilde has taken a special train and will arrive in Lincoln at noon of Wednesday. This too awfully all young man will lecture on aestheticism in the Chapel in the evening.
She came sailing down by the post-office, holding her Gainesborough on with one hand to keep it from blowing away. "Isn't this a buzzard!" she said. She meant "blizzard."
University students will be admitted to the Charter day exercises this evening for fifteen cents. Two tickets for a quarter. Jones, Wiggernhorn and Charles Fairfield have tickets for sale.
Public worship.—Each student is required to attend at some place of divine worship every Sabbath, under the direction of his parent or guardian.—Rules of the Board of Regents.
Phoenix to the front! The first new spring goods just arrived. Call if you want to see the newest nobby stiff hats just received from New York by express. Phoenix, Oct bet. 11 and 12.
Is the foot-ball the forerunner of a whole gymnasium? We sincerely hope so, but attempts at athletic culture have been such miserable failures heretofore that we have quite lost all hope.
While at home last week, Mr. Frank E. Smith took unto himself a "rib." The STUDENT is unable to give the name of the fortunate young lady, but both are here, and Frank is continuing his studies.
Advertising men cannot fail to see how well it would pay them to patronize the student's paper, for then not only would students patronize them, but many outside of the college also. The town list of this paper is quite extensive.