

Campus Gleanings.

'Rah for Ohio.

Warner has been dreaming again.

Beautiful weather! everybody happy! contrast with last week.

Elegant line of men's hosiery at W. R. Dennis', under Opera House.

Holmes keeps his hair combed nicely now that he has become a tutor.

T. Ewing & Co. are at the front for all the latest and fine fitting clothing.

Professors Nicholson and Hicks are back, to their classes' great delight.

For a fine fall or winter overcoat go to T. Ewing & Co's mammoth clothing house.

Merino and all-wool underwear 50 per cent below former prices at Winger & Miller's.

Students will save money by purchasing their clothing and furnishing goods of T. Ewing & Co.

Possibly some of these chilly mornings and evenings will induce you to look at W. R. Dennis' line of underwear.

The interest in base ball is increasing. During the past two weeks several interesting games have been played.

Remember Students you can get fine work, and better inducements, in the "Fotograf" line, at Kelley & Co 1026 O. St.

The boys have again commenced playing the old unadulterated foot ball. Look out for black shins and smashed toes.

Why can't we have class hats, class badges, class canes all the classical appurtenances to an insitutions of learning? The pocket-book answers.

The first frost of the season was visible October 9th, and it was a very light one too. This is much later than usual for Nebraska and that is the reason we make a note of it.

Students are not supposed to be interested in the affairs of the city, in particular, but it "do" tickle 'em to see the streets being graded up, the crossings repaired, and improvements generally being pushed along in anticipation of winter.

The Coyote shot on the campus at the beginning of the term will be in the museum in a few days. Mr. Knight, who had the mounting in charge, has his work nearly accomplished. The fact of its being shot on the campus will make it valuable.

Class in physical geography, topic under review, Specific Heat of Water. Professor: The specific heat of a body is how defined? Student: Specific heat is the amount of heat required to raise a degree a foot. Professor: Is that right, class? No reply.

The Union debating club has been organized. The attendance at the first meeting was larger than expected, and taking into consideration the interest manifested, the prospect is that the debating club of the Union society for 1884-5 will be a greater success than ever before.

Manley gives special rates on fruit for entertainments. Our fall and winter stock is now complete.—T. Ewing & Co.

Cadet suits and caps at T. Ewing & Co's clothing house.

Large stock of gents' collars and cuffs at W. R. Dennis. See them.

They say that O. B. Polk had to pay extra postage on a queer looking letter.

The Sophomore class contemplates wearing silk stoves pipe hats. The great obstacle seems to be it leaves to great a vacuum in their pocket books.

Our boss democrat has six dozen oyster stews "hazarded" on 'he November elections. They say he has obtained wholesale rates at every restaurant in town.

John Dryden and lady, who have been visiting Dr. Holmes, Mrs. Dryden's folks, returned Tuesday to Central City, their present home. John has a good situation at that point and is doing well.

Inquisitive student. Professor, has the bull apis any relation to the golden calf that Moses broke the tables over? After class the professor advised the inquisitive student to purchase a Bible and find out how the commandments were first broken.

One of the most singular incidents in the history of the University took place at the weekly examination of the Freshman class in History. It is the largest class of Freshman in History that the University ever had and not a paper fell below eighty.

The other day when the janitor went to ring the bell some student on the third floor had his curiosity aroused, and indulged in holding the bell rope. It is well he was not caught by the janitor; if he had been his curiosity would have been entirely satisfied.

Let's do something this year so that other schools may know that we exist. Cane rushes, hazing, Blaine and Logan clubs, and Cleveland badges are all well enough, but are hardly original. Let the ambitious western genius brace up and think of something new.

On the evening of Oct. 6, a lamentable outrage was committed on two innocent University boys. A band of unscrupulous villians, seven in number, snatched the boys from their rooms and rushed them into the Kandy Kitchen. For further particulars see E. H. Eddy.

At the Hesperian election a discussion was entered into by a number of students, in which several became rather warmed up, but every thing ended in fine shape. At the close a general watermelon rally was indulged in, and every-ones' pulse was bought to its normal condition.

How wicked it sounds to the devout student in chapel to hear the sinful medic rattling chairs and rehearsing for their minstrel shows in the lecture room below. If they can't come to chapel and can't keep still, we would suggest a set of straight jackets as a valuable addition to the medical apparatus.

The HESPERIAN Board held a meeting October 9th., to see if the STUDENT could be issued on time. The Board unanimously agreed to do all in their power to carry it into effect. We think all those who have noticed the irregularity of the STUDENT in the past will be pleased to hear of the change.
