

A special meeting of the Hesperian Association was called on the 13th of this month at which amendments were introduced providing that the board of editors of this paper should henceforth consist of one managing editor and four associates elected annually. This board of editors is to have the direction of the policy of the paper and the managing editor is to see that it is lived up to. The feeling that we must have a better paper, and have it now, is strong. It is thought that all parties are ready to unite and do what they can to make this a paper worthy of the college.

An issue or two ago we said that B. B. Davis of '82 was in the city for a short time. We were mistaken. He had come to stay a long time. In fact he has settled here as a practicing physician and his shingle swingeth in the winds that sweep along O street. There is a mighty hos of doctors in Lincoln but our old friend does not hesitate to locate here because he has perfect faith in the survival of the fittest. It comes as hard to call him "Doctor" as it does to address a newly married woman by her right name, but we are improving with practice. If any of the students break their necks or eat too much or are physically inactive for any other reason they can't do better than to get Dr. Davis' advice.

Though the STUDENT has failed sometimes to appear just at date there has always been heretofore reasons for that delay sufficient to excuse the managers; but in respect to the present issue, this is not true. The cause of the delay is simply slowness on the part of the editors, and that on the part of all of them. However, numerous meetings of the Association, amendments to the constitution etc. etc. have claimed the spare time of all concerned and things have thus been neglected the present looking to better arrangements for the future. We have amended to diminish the corps of editors to five, and increase the term of office to one college year instead of one-half year as heretofore. We hope to obtain better men, and make the position of an editor a more honorable one than under the present "regime."
