THE FACULTY:

There are 11 members in the Faculty, each specially educated for his department.

PRESIDENT JONES has had over twenty years experience in educational work.

PROFESSOR HAMLIN, principal of the Business college, has had over fifteen years' experience and is a superior penman and an expert accountant.

PROFESSOR MOHLER is an original and inspiring teacher in the Natural Science and Business Departments.

PROFESSOR LAWTON, of Boston, Mass. is a superior instructor in Music. Miss Sarah Sherman, of Chicago, is an artist of rare talent and skill, and a most successful teacher. Miss Lydia L. Jones and Miss Jessie Cowles are graduates of the Northwestern University and able teachers. Mr. A. A. Cowles is a practical short-hand reporter and an adept at type-writing. The other teachers are thoroughly qualified.

RATES OF TUITION AND BOARD.

Are very reasonable, and the cheapness of board at Fremont compared with cost in other cities about off-sets the whole price of tuition. Tuition for fifteen weeks is $15. Instrumental music, $12 per twenty lessons; voice culture, $12; fine arts, $10 per twelve three-hour lessons; short-hand $12, and type-writing $10 per twenty one-hour lessons, except for students in other branches who pay $5.00.

NO VACATIONS.

The WINTER TERM of 15 weeks will begin Dec. 30, but students can enter at any time, and are doing so continually, paying charges only from time of entering to time of leaving. Spring Term will begin April 13, '85, and Summer Institute July 6, '85.

For particulars address the undersigned

W. P. JONES, A. M.,
Pres. of Normal College, Fremont, Neb.

Special Advantages:

This institution was erected by Merchants, Bankers, Manufacturers, and successful farmers to TRAIN YOUNG PEOPLE FOR REAL LIFE,—to earn their own living as teachers, as clerks, bookkeepers, cashiers, etc., in mercantile, banking, railway, factory or other business offices. It has been organized and is conducted on strictly business principles, such as have brought its founders success in the occupations of actual life. There is a business tone about it which communicates itself to the students with the most happy results. The attendance is continually increasing at a rapid rate. Railroads grant students half rates in going to and from College, if applied for through College President.
