

CAMPUS CANARDS.

Jack Frost has appeared.

Did you ever see Patterson execute the manual of arms?

The Philodiceans now hold their meetings in the chapel.

The girls say that Gerwig's pompadour is not becoming.

Ellis O. Lewis '84 is principal of the school at Verdon Nel.

Who can execute the best movements, the cadets or the Knights of Pythias?

Geo. Frankforter '86 is assisting Prof. Nicholson in the chemical laboratory.

We understand that some of the students are taking private instruction this term.

Students are already looking forward to the inevitable Thanksgiving turkey.

The chapel choir has been reorganized and now consists of about a dozen singers.

Look out for the Freshman badge. It has appeared and is very neat, modest and pretty.

The Democratic Convention has been held and Canaday and Wiggernhorn are supremely happy.

Regent Mallalieu of Kearney, was in the city last week as a delegate to the Republican Convention.

Is it not about the time for the members of the Junior class to organize, and get acquainted with each other?

S. D. Killen has resigned his position as a member of the editorial staff. We understand he has gone home.

Miss Rachel Manley '88 went to York last week as one of Lincoln's representatives at the Convention of the W. F. M. S.

Many of the students engage in a game of base-ball every Saturday. We understand that Forsythe is the champion player.

Workmen on the new laboratory have resumed their work of laying brick, and the structure is slowly stretching toward the stars.

We were surprised a few days ago to hear that the Western boys resembled each other. Some one give us some more news please.

Miss Anna Keys, who has been attending the University for the past three years, is now pursuing study in the culinary art at her home in Roca.

Wilbur C. Knight returned last week from his summer's work in Wyoming. Judging from his looks, he must have been in a healthful locality.

The members of the Sophomore class in Zoology are doing practical work this term in classifying the vast collection of animals in the museum.

The radiators and steam pipes are now nearly all in position, but there will be many chilly recitations before the building can be made comfortable.

Request Paul Clark to relate his experience with crackers, cranberry sauce and hungry boys. If he refuses to explain, full particulars will be given in our next issue.

At a special meeting of the Hesperian Association held on the 16 inst., E. C. Wiggernhorn was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. D. Killen.

The literary societies are considering the question of another O'Shea contest. Three prizes are offered. One for the winning society, one for the gentleman having the best production, and one for the best lady competitor.

Mrs. Minnie Stratton (nee Coddington) of the class of '83, paid the University a short visit last week.

The leaves of the trees on the campus are turning yellow and brown, and will soon present the desolate appearance of Winter.

The Union girls propose to run things next Friday night to suit themselves. Their "Dickens" program will no doubt be a rare literary treat.

The P. G. D. C., which means the "Palladian Girl's Debating Club", has made a little sensation by taking a leading part in the regular debates of the society.

The new chapel chairs are very comfortable, but not very durable judging from the fact that the back of one was broken the first morning. One of the girls caused it.

Can't some method be devised whereby students, who get their mail at the University, can obtain it without searching the building from top to bottom to find the janitor?

Dame Rumor says that one of the members of the faculty will soon take to himself a bride. Although the event has not yet occurred, congratulations will be in order at any time.

EEEE rules of order can be obtained at any time by calling upon him. (Explanations of this item will be sent to any address upon receipt of a 2c stamp to pay postage and packing.

The new laboratory has made no progress since our last issue. The delay is caused by the non-appearance of the bricks. Whether this is the fault of the contractor or not, we cannot tell.

Why not have an annual this year? The one published two years ago was a success in every respect. The proper time to begin the work is during the Fall term. Let the subject be agitated.

The Janitor thinks it would be a good idea to have an electric light suspended from the top of the tower to light the campus this winter. We agree with him. It would be particularly agreeable on Friday nights.

The street car track is now being laid on 11th St. We understand that the cars will be painted green for the benefit of the students. (If, after careful study you fail to see the joke, the editor will be pleased to explain.

The first dress parade of the term took place last Friday afternoon on the campus. Co. D. of the State Militia, under command of Captain Hotchkiss participated in the parade. The Cadet band furnished music for the occasion.

Co-ed Chit-chat.

Oh, wasn't the dog-show just too lovely for anything!

Just wait till I try my smiles upon Mr. ——— and see if he don't succumb.

Say, girls, don't you think the instructor in Physics is awfully nice?

Now really don't you think I look cute with my hair cut?

I wish he would look this way. Why don't he? Guess I'll cough. She coughed. Scene.

Married, Sept 9th. at the residence of the brides parents, Flora E. Frost, '83 to Novis Z. Snell '82.

The above parties are well known to most of us; both graduated with high honors in their respective class. Mr. Snell was formerly Managing Editor of THE HESPERIAN but has reformed since, and is now one of the prominent legal lights of the Capital city. Although somewhat late, THE HESPERIAN extends heartiest congratulations and wishes, in the words of Rip Van., "May they live long and prosper."
