

there not coming up to the requirement for admission to the University, his success reflects great credit on the energy shown in preparing himself under such difficulties. He will assuredly attain high rank in the institution he has chosen for an alma mater.—Vallejo Chronicle.

Those who know our Will O. Jones, '86, will read with pleasure this highly commendatory article about a younger member of the Jones family. By the way, the younger member once thought of attending here, but could not make arrangements so satisfactory as could be made nearer home.

May 21st, 1886.

Club called to order by Vice Pres. Moved and carried that debate be dispensed with for one week. A committee consisting of — was appointed to arrange for a joint session of the U. U. G. A. S. and P. G. D. C. to debate the "Ice Cream Question." During their absence it was moved and carried that Miss — give the club some music. The clubs then went into joint session and proceeded to debate. Misses C—l, G—e, H—n and B—k vigorously assailed Ice Cream. A few inconsiderate girls attempted to speak for Ice Cream, but were howled down. At this stage of the debate Miss — brought forward a motion (which was carried,) that the Pres. be deprived of her gum. From this time forth the thread of argument was broken. The evil effects of introducing foreign subjects into the debate is here shown. As soon as order was restored the following resolutions were adopted:

STRIKE!!!!

WHEREAS, Through the columns of the HESPERIAN numerous complaints have been made by the "unfortunate boys" who meet on Saturday morning "to compare notes" concerning the "co eds' appetite for Ice Cream," and

WHEREAS, We all think it's awful mean, be it

Resolved, That we the undersigned pledge ourselves not to accept invitations to the Ice Cream parlors on Friday nights after society, and

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to see that the above is observed.
