

"Dr., I move you that the Philodicean Society stand adjourned for next Friday evening."

J. P. Hartman, attorney at law, Kearney, an old time student, and wife, are in town. Mr Hartman is here watching the doings of the legislators. John made us a pleasant call last week.

The Scientific Club meets in the Chemical Lecture room for its first meeting of the term, at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, Jan., 8th. All Science students should be present and all others who are at all interested in Scientific work.

W. O. Jones, of University fame, now an editor on the State Journal force, who has been suffering with ulcerated sore throat, is again able to hold down his chair at the office. "Willow" is a veritable "true blue" from the U. of N.

Sing Sing Dispatch: The prison doors opened yesterday to admit a wild and wooly cow-boy from Nebraska by name of Chas. French. His appearance is suggestive of a desperate character and he will be kept in chains for some time to come.

Kearney Dispatch: The ladies belonging to the "elite" of Kearney have been at home all this week to Messrs D. D. Forsyth, G. A. Beecher and L. A. Tillson. The hearty welcome and untold joy with which the fair sex received the before mentioned gentlemen was certainly something to be proud of.

Sutton Plaindealer: Master Bertie Clark arrived yesterday from Lincoln where he has been attending the state University, and was met and welcomed by Sutton's juvenile population. The little folks held a jubilee over the event at the home of Willie Wood, and report a pleasant evening, made so by nuts, candy and games.
