

a rush last Saturday morning. W. O. Jones, G. B. Frankforter and C. G. McMillan were selected as judges. The freshmen were to hold the cane in an open field and the sophomores to rush upon them and try to take it away. At the end of fifteen minutes the cane belonged to the class that had the most hands on it. If a man of either class struck a blow or made a foul the judges could count a hand for the other class, or call time, at their discretion. The classes assembled on the grounds; the preps and upper classmen seized cudgels of stove-wood to keep the crowd back; and all things were made ready for the fray. Each class sings its motto in Latin and Sanskrit; the service of Mars is invoked by both; and they await the signal. It sounds—they rush, they grapple, tug, wrestle, jerk and climb over one another in great confusion. About the cane there is a surging, struggling mass of muscles, while here and there they are paired off, wrestling and rolling on the turf. The little "fresh" cares not if he is thrown so long as he can keep a bigger "soph" away from the cane. When the fifteen minutes were up the judges called time and found six freshman and seven sophomore hands on the cane. The result was nearer a tie than was expected, as the freshman took a very loose position and were outnumbered by some six or eight men. Nobody was hurt, though many were completely exhausted. Some noses bled, some shirts were torn, but in a few days it is probable all will be recovered. Clark, Wiggen horn and other members of the class of '87 were on the ground to watch this, our second cane rush, and see if '91 would win the day as the freshies did four years ago.

The university battalion became so large it was thought best to divide it, forming a third company. This was done and orders to that effect were published last Friday at dress parade.

COMPANY "A."

Captain, Roscoe Pound; 1st lieutenant, J. R. Schofield; 2nd lieutenant, Jay A. Barrett; 1st sergeant, Herbert Webber; 2nd sergeant, C. P. Walter; 3rd sergeant, T. S. Allen; 4th sergeant, T. H. Marsland; 1st corporal, D. A. Haggard, 2nd corporal, F. F. Almy.

COMPANY "B."

Captain, A. E. Anderson; 1st lieutenant, Roy G. Coddling; 2nd lieutenant, C. S. Lobingier; 1st sergeant, G. W. Gerwig; 2nd sergeant, W. L. Stephens; 3rd sergeant, R. D. Church; 4th sergeant, H. B. Hicks; 5th sergeant, H. Lamaster; 1st corporal, C. B. Newcomer; 2nd corporal, W. J. Taylor; 3rd corporal, E. S. Dudley.

COMPANY "C."

Captain, J. S. Smith; 1st lieutenant, H. P. Mathewson; 1st sergeant, W. N. Fletcher; 2nd sergeant, D. D. Forsyth; 3rd sergeant, M. I. Bigelow; 4th sergeant, E. R. Holmes; 1st corporal, C. B. Gregory; 2nd corporal, F. H. Woods; 3rd corporal, A. A. Reed.

First Lieutenant Roy G. Coddling, Acting Adjutant; Sergt. C. P. Walter, Acting Sergt. Major; Sergt. H. B. Hicks, color sergeant, Corporals Haggard, Almy and Taylor, color guard; Privates Grant, Pizey, Crosby and Eager, markers.

A battery of artillery has been organized consisting of one platoon from each company. It is a voluntary organization, and officers have been selected as follows: First platoon (Company A), Lieut. Herbert Webber commanding—Sergeants, C. P. Walter and E. E. Huling; Gunners, J. B. Schofield and Roscoe Pound. Second platoon (Company B), Lieut. Roy G. Coddling commanding—Sergeants, W. L. Stephens and C. E. Tingley; Gunners, H. B. Hicks and G. H. Gere.

Details for markers will be made monthly and apportioned amongst the several companies.

W. W. Robertson made up his mind that he would a little rather not be connected with this sheet under the present management and hereafter will allow some one else to set up the paper and fire visitors.

Some European fellow has counted up all the bullets shot during the Franco-German war and comparing with the number killed asserts that one bullet in a thousand ended a life. If this be true, 10,000 bullets shot by the U. C. would be about as dangerous as the tail of a comet.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Santa Ana (Cal.) Daily Blade which contains a column and a half description of the Chase-Edwards wedding. It is described as the most brilliant affair which ever took place in Santa Ana. From the description the floral decorations, music and toilets of the guests must have been of the most splendid order. Of the wedding gifts it is said that, "no such array of solid silver and expensive articles of vertu has ever been seen in southern California." The groom, Clement C. Chase, of Omaha, will be remembered as an old time student who even then gave promise of a splendid career. The bride, Miss Lulu Edwards, was one of the belles of Santa Ana. The best wishes of the HESPERIAN go with them and we hope their wedded life may continue as prosperously as it has begun.

A SENIOR'S VIEWS ON —

I'll write for him,
I'll fight for him,
I'll study all the night for him.
I'll smoke for him,
I'll joke for him,
My "Pol. Econ." I'll soak for him.

I'll flunk for him,
Get drunk for him,
And even pawn my trunk for him.
I'll read for him,
I'll bleed for him,
And even ride his steed for him.

I'll cry for him,
I'll lie for him,
I'll very nearly die for him.
I'll wait for him,
Debate for him,—
But hanged if I'll orate for him.

Shilling Bros. sell the finest of stationery, perfumes and toilet goods: 237 south Eleventh street.

J. and D. Newman, 1027 O Street. Oldest Dry Goods House in the city.

If you want to get solid with your girl take her some of Manley's taffy. Yum! Yum!!

Students can have their laundry work done in first class style by the Eureka Steam Laundry. Leave your orders at this office.

We all like ice cream of course, and are interested in finding the best parlor. Poehlers just suits us.

You will always find Kelly on hand to do good work.

Go to Ewing's for fur caps.

W. R. Dennis has the largest stock of men's fine hats and furnishing goods. Inspection solicited.

Manley keeps a full line of confectionery goods, give him a call.

W. R. Dennis should be your hatter and furnisher.

Call on Eddddd. Cerf & Cooo.

Stetson and Dunlap hats at W. R. Dennis' under Opera House.

Go to Ed. Cerf & Co. for furnishing goods.

The latest styles in hats at Ed. Cerf & Co's.

Ewing's make children's clothing a special feature of their business. The new stock now includes the handsomest styles ever brought to Lincoln. Be sure to call and see them.