

TO STUDENTS!

No wide awake young man, compelled to earn money for a long and expensive college course, can afford to adopt the tedious and slightly remunerative means of teaching, farming or clerking. Many young men in the east have made enough in a three months vacation to pay the expenses of the entire college year, by canvassing for the sale of fine stereoscopic views. You can clear from $75 $125 per month handling my goods. I want a few young men from the University to canvass for the winter term.
