

- W. N. FLETCHER.—I intend to study law. Am a democrat.
- C. M. FRENCH.—I intend to study law. In politics I am a democrat.
- G. W. GERWIG.—After commencement I will return to my home in Pittsburg where a position awaits me in the country treasurer's office. I may return to Lincoln in the fall and pursue post graduate studies. I am a republican.
- F. A. MANLEY.—Shall follow civil engineering for a time. Am a republican.
- C. B. NEWCOMER.—I cannot say until some future time what my occupation will be. I am a prohibitionist.
- ALFRED PIZEY.—I shall study law. I am a prohibitionist.
- W. L. STEPHENS.—I shall begin teaching, with a professorship as my ultimate aim. I am a republican.
- G. H. TINKER.—I shall become a civil engineer. I belong to the republican party.
- E. R. TINGLEY.—I may enter the banking business. If not, I shall pursue post-graduate studies and become a professor of geology. I am a prohibitionist.
- A. E. WAGNER.—I will make myself a specialist in physics.
- H. J. WEBBER.—I shall probably become a professor of botany. I am a prohibitionist.
- T. A. WILLIAMS.—I hope to be able to pursue my studies in the sciences, especially in entomology. I am an Independent Republican.

Ye editor did not care to make any inquiries among the ladies of the Senior class. He values the goodwill of those ladies too much to risk losing it all by asking such questions as he has propounded to the remaining members of the class of '89.

ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS.

Any information as to location or occupation of those who have been students in former days will be thankfully received. Will alumni please notify us of any change of residence or any great things they may do.

- '87.—W. S. Perrin is in the grain business at Roca.
- '88.—Miss Carrie M. Pennock visited the U. of N. last Wednesday.
- '84.—A. L. White is at work for the B. & M. R. R. in north-west Nebraska.
- '88.—A. E. Anderson dropped in on the Phi Delta Thetas last Friday evening.
- '82.—John Silvernail, an instructor at the Industrial School, was in the city last week.
- '87.—C. S. Polk and O. B. Polk, '88, have formed a partnership in law, at Plattsmouth, Neb.
- '88.—H. P. Barrett has accepted the position of editor of the Reflector, the society paper of Council Bluffs.
- '91.—Miss Nellie Scott, of Tecumseh, formerly with the class of '91, spent a few days visiting friends at the University the first of this week.
- '88.—Messrs. Lobingier, Barrett, Pound, and others of the class who are in the city, have located a claim on the campus where they exercise themselves at tennis in the evenings.
- '87.—C. S. Kathan stopped over in the city a few hours last week on his way home from the western part of the state. He resembled the proverbial granger in appearance, but was feeling all right.
- '84.—J. H. Holmes has been doing post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins in mineralogy, biology, and chemistry. He will probably collect botanical specimens for the Department of Agriculture this summer.

STRAY PICK-UPS.

- Tom Hall is taking vocal lessons under Professor Hunt.
- E. M. Pollard went down home over Saturday and Sunday.
- H. A. Senter's papa remembered him on his birthday with a watch.
- The Sunday morning Globe now runs a "University notes" column.
- The Kappa Kappa Gammas initiated Miss Kate Scotthorne last week.
- Peterson, from personal observation, says that prohibition does not prohibit.
- The Seniors put the finishing touches on their class day arrangements last week.
- Four dozen mammoth cuspidors will be ordered to grace the University hallways.
- Professor Little received a large set of engineering magazines last week for the library.
- It is said that Church carries a bunch of keys and a rope ladder when he goes to see Graham.
- F. V. Patrick, Ohio Wesleyan university, '91, was the guest of the Beta Theta Pi boys last week.
- A number of the students attended a hop given by the Yorke club at Temple Hall, Friday, May 3.
- C. D. Schell "orated" at the concert and rhetorical given under the auspices of the Christian church last week.
- The faculty and students are again upon speaking terms and will now probably remain so until Decoration day.
- F. R. Dungan, of Doane, late secretary of the N. C. O. A., was the Doane delegate to the state convention Saturday.
- From the old adage "There is a quiet before a storm." Could we draw the conclusion that the Juniors may be heard from soon?
- Foot ball has come with a vengeance, judging from the number of stiff shins, broken fingers and various other complications.
- A small party of students enjoyed Inauguration day fishing at Crabb's mill. The usual number of fishing stories were captured.
- One is puzzled in reading the class notices on the bulletin board to discriminate the chirography of the Senior from that of the first prep.
- A tall, slim prince albert with a man inside, was around last week inquiring for the "proprietor of this institution." He was referred to John Green.
- The attendance at the public lectures would seem to indicate an increasing appreciation of them, which is very gratifying both to Dr. Warner and to the University.
- We would like to know if our friend C. (we do not mean Church this time) was successful in securing invitations "for eight university people" to the high school picnic.
- The boys in the University battery are of the opinion that the friction primers now used here are a part of the stock that Noah had on hand at the time of his noted expedition.
- The field sports committee are doing active work on arrangements for Field Day. Last years farce—if it may be so called—should be a warning to them. It would not be a bad scheme to continue the collection started at the time of the "pie rush" to secure a rope to surround the grounds or to form a ring on field day.
