TESTIMONIALS;

Mr. Hiram Orcutt:—We have engaged Miss I. R. C—, whom you sent to us as a candidate for assistant in our High School. We afterwards heard from Misses M— and K—, two other candidates whom you recommended and both impressed us very favorably. We are much obliged for your promptness, and I shall remember you in the future when we need other teachers.

My Dear Dr. Orcutt:—I wish once more to express my high appreciation of the excellent aid you have rendered me in obtaining the position [at New Haven, Conn.—salary, $1500] which I desired. I am confident that no one could have done more or better, and feel myself under great obligations to you. Please accept my thanks.

M. M. MARBLE.
