

ALUMNI ALLUSIONS.

'87.—C. S. Polk has recently been appointed city attorney of Plattsmouth, Neb.

All those desiring herbarium paper should get it at once at THE HESPERIAN office. Special rates for large orders.

'89.—C. W. Bigelow is in from Beatrice. He will remain in Lincoln during the summer.

'88.—Last week C. S. Lobengflier left for Sheffield, Ala., where he will be the legal member of a real estate firm.

'89.—H. J. Webber will leave in a few days for Woods Holl, Mass., where he will do scientific work during the summer at the Marine Biological Laboratory.

'89.—M. I. Bigelow is in Chicago on business for the firm Almy & Bigelow. He stopped at Galesburg, and visited his brother, and passed some time at Knox College where once he was a prep.

'St.—May 31, Professor Fossler left for Europe, where he will pass the summer. He will visit the Sorbonne in Paris where he attended in '81 and '82, afterwards he will go to Southern Germany. His voyage, going and coming, will be on the "Alaska."

STRAY PICK-UPS.

The seniors finished work May 25.

Commencement day will be June 11.

T. H. Marsland has written his thesis on the "Ash of the Sugar Beet."

Miss Lilian Wolfe of Freeport, Ill., recently visited her friend, Miss Jeanette Wilson.

Edwin Gerwig who has been visiting his brother G. W. Gerwig left for the East on the 26.

The ball game between the Wesleyans and Crete stood fourteen to nine in favor of the Wesleyans.

"The Relation of the Gills of Limulus to Lung the Scorpion" is the subject of C. E. Tingley's thesis.

The Wesleyan university is going to be represented at the inter-collegiate field day by some good, solid, large men.

G. H. Maghee is at present working in a telegraph office at Rawlins, Wyo. He intends to return to the University next year.

Dr. Reese has sent an order to Th. Steuffer, Leipzig, for the complete Truebner Series of Greek Literature which embrace 177 volumes.

Students knowing themselves indebted to Sayer & Miller will please call and settle at once. We wish to have our books clean before the close of school.

There are still a few who are back on their subscription and we hope they will settle at once. We wish to have our accounts straightened up before school closes.

Mr. H. B. Duncanson has chosen for his thesis "Nebraska Soil" the subject is treated with respect to, formation of soil, physical properties, chemical constitution, elements of fertility and deleterious substances.

Mr. Chas. E. Chadey of Doane, vice president, of the I. C. A. A. was at the university Saturday in the interest of inter-collegiate athletics. He reports great interest in the local field day at Doane, and thinks that there will be an interesting contest for honors at the inter-collegiate field day.

C. A. Beach, formerly of '90, started for the Black Hills May 19. Beach expects to work with a B. & M. surveying gang until September when he will return to Lincoln.

The special programs, given by the different literary societies will begin Wednesday evening June 5. Their order will be as follows: Palladian, Union, Delian and Philodicean.

In a game of base ball last week at Colgate, New York Michigan university was defeated by Colgate university by a score of seven to ten. Colgate scored seven bare hits and Michigan three.

At Cushman park: W. M. Johnson to Nelson, (after they had regained the shore and were concealing themselves behind some bushes): "If we only had a cigar we could soon dry ourselves."

As the train, containing the Grand Army picnickers and the cadets, started for Cushman park, Governor Thayer remarked: "Does any one know where in the thunder we are going and what for?"

Dr. Geiger is an unfeeling man. Friday night Pollard attempted to persuade the doctor to allow him to go into the studio in order that a couple of co-eds might draw his picture, but despite all his eloquence his efforts were in vain.

In conversation with J. H. Bicknell of the Christian university we received the impression that although the number of boys at the C. U. is not great, we may find them quite "numerous" about June 1. They seem to have true college grit out in the country.

At the request of the professor of Greek of Drury college, Springfield, Dr. Lees prepared questions for a prize examination in Homer given to the Freshman and Sophomore classes. The Dr. has been offered the professorship of Latin in the Missouri Valley college.

This term Professor Emery's division of Latin has translated Cicero's fourth oration against Cataline, his plea for Ligarius, and Archias, and his oration against Antony, On account of the vast amount of ground covered by the class, the professor has decided to dispense with the final examination this term.

On the afternoon of May 14 the University ball team played the Lincoln Giants. Although somewhat onesided the game was interesting from beginning to end. The most interesting features of the game were a triple play made by Brown to Hughbanks and a running catch made by Peters.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Universities	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2-3
Lincolns	2	0	1	0	0	2	2	0	*-7

The University ball team suffered its first defeat at the hands of the Lincoln Giants.

Through the kindness of Mr. Gillespie we have been furnished with a very elaborate chart giving some interesting particulars concerning our noble Seniors. Many things upon the chart were not suitable for publication, and the editorial staff is still searching for the joke connected with other parties; as soon as the points dawn upon us we will give them to our readers. At present we can publish only the following: "E. E. Gillespie; age, 22; height, 5 feet 8 inches; weight, 130 lbs.; size of shoe, one 9, other 10; color of eyes, pink; color of hair, o'burn; color of moustache, old gold; nickname, Professor; favorite amusement, eating and dancing; present occupation, running Senior class; future occupation, politician; office in class, 'class brilliant'; favorite 'grub', angel food and pickles."