

The following promotions and appointments were made Monday evening September the 29 to take effect from date. Company A, captain, E. P. Brown; lieutenant, A. C. Cope; sergeants, G. L. Sheldon, L. B. Cornell, W. C. Dorsey, L. E. Troyer; corporals, Paul Pizey, W. A. Richmond, J. P. Williams. Company B, captain, J. W. McCrosky; lieutenant, C. D. Schell; sergeants, H. J. Edmiston, H. A. Senter, T. Brugger and F. D. Eager; corporals, Fred Gund, and F. F. Tucker. Company C, captain D. A. Haggard; lieutenant, Paul Hibbard; sergeants, C. D. Chandler, W. L. Stockton G. L. Tait, and Rupert Dinges; corporals, W. H. Sawyer and H. J. Podlesack. Company D, captain, H. A. Reese; lieutenant W. T. Brown; sergeants, J. A. Barkley, E. E. Nicholson, E. M. Pollard, Burt Bonnell; corporal, Christian Roher, R. S. Bulla and Williams. Staff officers: C. C. Fletcher, lieutenant and acting adjutant; G. P. Thurber, first lieutenant and quartermaster; F. D. Hyde, sergeant-major; M. M. Maghee, color sargeaut. Men detailed to drill the awkward squad were Sargeant-Major F. D. Hyde and sargeants H. A. Senter and E. M. Pollard.

AT HYMEN'S ALTER.

CALDWELL—BARNES.

On the 25 of June Professor Caldwell was married to Miss Lisbeth A. Barnes at Baltimore, Md.. The Professor and Mrs. Caldwell spent about two weeks in Springfield, Mass., visiting friends and relatives, from there they went to Belleville, Canada, to visit Mrs. Caldwell's brother. At this place they had a pleasant time and enjoyed fishing and boating on Lake Ontario. The happy couple returned to Lincoln July 25 and are now residing at 2400 Lynn street.

GRIFFITH—OAKLEY.

On the evening of September 3 at six o'clock, the sound of music told the many friends gathered in the Holy Trinity church that the time was come when Lieutenant T. W. Griffith and Miss Aileen Oakley were to be united in the holy bond of wed-lock, Rev. John Hewitt officiating. After the ceremony the guests were invited to the Oakley home where a warm reception and a delicious supper awaited them. The groom's best man was E. Lewis Kuhns of Chicago the bride of honor being Miss Olivie Latta, a former member of the class of '92. Among the most prominent personages from abroad were, W. A. Griffith of Greensbury, Pa., and H. S. Kiehl of Pittsburg, Pa., The bridal party left on the 8.55 train for Denver and Salt Lake, returning on the 17 of September and are now living at 1420 R street.

TUCKER—CORNELL.

Miss Idear Cornell, formerly of '91, was married in Philadelphia to Mr. Tucker. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker are now living in New Brunswick.

WEBBER—HARDIN.

On the evening of September 8, at the residence of the bride's parents, 346 North Seventeenth street, Lincoln, occurred the wedding of H. J. Webber and Miss Lucy Hardin, Rev. C. B. Newman officiating. The happy couple have made their home at St. Louis, where Mr. Webber is professor of botany in the Washington university.

ANSLEY—CHILDE.

The wedding of C. F. Ansley and Miss Anna Childe occurred at Holy Trinity church, Lincoln, on the evening of August 9, Rev. M. Lewin performing the ceremony. The happy couple are at home to their friends at Aledo, Ill.,

MENZENDORF—COCHRAN.

On the evening of Wednesday, September 17, at the home of the bride's parents, at Normal, Illinois, occurred the wedding of Professor Gustav C. Menzendorf and Miss Ermina D. Cochran. About fifty of their more intimate friends had assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. Dr. S. D. Cochran. After the ceremony and congratulations a sumptuous supper was served, and later several select pieces of music were rendered. At 8.30, the company dispersed, and Mr. and Mrs. Menzendorf boarded the fast train for Lincoln via Kansas City. Many elegant presents testify to the esteem in which the newly wedded couple are held. They have THE HESPERIAN'S congratulations and best wishes for a happy future.

KILLEN—MOODY.

At the home of Mrs. S. S. Moody of Beatrice, September 16, Mr. S. D. Killen was married to Miss Anna Moody by Rev. E. S. Smith of the Congregational church. The bridal party departed at once for Chicago and the East on a short wedding tour. Mr. and Mrs. Killen will make their home at Beatrice. Mr. Killen graduated at the University in '87 and has many friends here who wish him many years of happiness and success.

BIGELOW—TOWER.

At the home of the bride's parents corner of 24 and Q June 16, Mr. C. W. Bigelow and Miss May Tower, both of '89, were united in marriage by Rev. Brock of the Second Presbyterian church. During the summer Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow resided in the city. Mr. Bigelow has lately been appointed superintendent of the city schools of Madison, Nebr. He and Mrs. Bigelow will make their home there until June next, then they will return to Lincoln, which they expect to make their future home.

McILVAIN—HIBBARD.

At York, Nebr., August 21, a large number of friends gathered at the home of the bride's parents to witness the marriage of Miss Marian F. Hibbard, formerly of the class of '93 and Mr. L. L. McIlvain. The newly married couple at once started for Denver, Colo., where they will make their home in the future.

WALTERS—THURBER.

On Tuesday September 23, 1890 at 2.30 p. m. at the residence of the brides parents Miss Mattie Thurber and Mr. Charles Percy Walters were married, Rev. E. S. Ralston officiating. Both the contracting parties are former University students Miss Thurber having been a member of the class of '92 and Mr. Walters of the class of '91. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them. They will be at home to their friends in East Lincoln.

STUFF—MOORE.

At the brides home at 705 North Twentyfifth street, Lincoln, on the evening of September 8, occurred the marriage of Mr. F. A. Stuff and Miss Minnie Moore, the bride's father, Rev. C. W. Moore officiating. Both the bride and groom were formerly students at the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Stuff reside at 705 North Twentyfifth street Lincoln.

Ten per cent off to students of the State University at J. Z. Briscoe, the shoe man, exposition building.

When in need of anything in the line of wearing apparel call on Mayer Bros., at their magnificent new parlors, North Tenth street, opposite the post office.