ABOUT OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS CLIPPED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

LEIGH.
From the World.
The many friends of Jacob Held, Sr., who was hurt in a runaway last week, are rejoicing over the fact that he is constantly improving and out of danger.

The most destructive hail storm of the season visited Colfax county last Saturday evening and mowed down the grain before it on a strip of land about five miles wide through the center of the county from west to east. Winter wheat and oats that never looked better were literally pounded into the ground while only the stub ends of the corn remain to be seen. We are unable to estimate the loss, but it is needless to say that it will be great.

MONROE.
From the Republican.
Mrs. G. H. Nash of Columbus was the guest of Monroe friends last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fenimore and Will Farrant and sister Ethel were visiting at the Gertch home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leah Lightner returned Tuesday evening from Lynch, Neb., where they were called by the serious illness of their son, Stephen. When they left he was resting much easier and there was every prospect of his recovery.

The village board held special meeting Monday evening and employed John Early of Columbus as engineer to draw plans for the water works system and also superintendent their construction, and signed a contract with him. Mr. Early will proceed to draw up plans at once and the board will advertise for bids. As soon as the bonds are received from the printers they will be registered and placed on the market.

FULLERTON.
From the News-Journal.
Chenoweth and Gray of Columbus were in town Monday and rented the brick building north of Kinyon's for a dry goods and notions store. J. H. Umstead is having the room fitted up for them, and expects to have it ready in a few days.

It is said that there were 227 packages of liquor shipped into Fullerton in two days last week, and the fourth of July supply was probably not counted in on this shipment. Over $200 in orders were taken in one day this week. It certainly looks like closing the saloons does not stop the consumption of red liquor.

Sheriff Babb went to Hastings yesterday morning with Miss Sadie McNeff, daughter of Geo. McNeff, living west of Fullerton. For several days the young lady has shown unmistakable signs of insanity, and Tuesday she became violent.

Her hallucination is of a religious turn. The doctors think she will soon recover from her unfortunate condition.

BELLWOOD.
From the Gazette.
Moly Pace, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Pace, accidentally fell and broke her arm last Saturday evening.

Sunday and Day are the names of two farmers in Missouri. Sunday has five sons and Day has five daughters. Three of the Sunday boys have already married Day girls. With the other two brothers courting the other two remaining sisters it looks as though every Day would be Sunday by and by.

About half-past five o'clock last Saturday evening a black cloud formed southwest of Bellwood. It moved in a southeasterly direction until it burst in the neighborhood of the county poor farm in the shape of a hail and rain storm, the roar of which was plainly heard at Bellwood. It is said window lights were broken in many farm houses. One, Baily, who lives near David City was among the victims and it is said John Puetz lost his entire wheat crop.

PLATE CENTER.
From the Signal.
Miss Rose Walker of Columbus is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Beattie Macken.

Mrs. Phillip Greisen of Columbus spent the early part of the week with relatives at this place.

Jerome Fitzpatrick of Columbus spent Tuesday and Wednesday here, with his college chum, Fred Zing.

Miss Francis McTaggart returned to her home in Columbus Tuesday, having been the guest of her many friends here for a week.

Geo. N. Lamb, living ten miles north-west of town, had the misfortune to fall on a hay rack, June 24, and break two ribs on his left side. He is recovering satisfactorily.

As we go to press the news reaches us that Dan Holleran passed away Wednesday night at his home in Lindsay. Mr. Holleran was well and favorably known throughout Platte county. The funeral was held Friday. Deceased leaves a devoted wife to mourn his loss.

Ven. Sister M. Feicis, who has been a nurse in St. Francis' hospital, Colorado Springs, Colorado, the past three years, has written her sister, Mrs. C. M. Granther, that she was transferred June 29th to St. John's hospital at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Potter from Monroe were in Platte Center Tuesday. Since the Potters have moved off the old farm their visits here are a long way apart. And our people greatly miss the fine fruit and early vegetables with which Mr. Potter supplied them.

HUMPHREY.
From the Democrat.
For the first time in several months Mr. Thos. O'Brien was out on the street Monday afternoon in his wheel chair. It was extremely pleasing to his many friends indeed.

Atty. F. M. Cookingham returned home Saturday evening from Columbus, where he was confined to the hospital several weeks. Mr. Cookingham says he feels much better and his looks certainly substantiate what he says.

Kenneth Pratt was unfortunate enough to have a tine of a pitch fork run through his foot last Friday evening which caused considerable anxiety on the part of his parents, but with the assistance of Dr. Muldoon the wound has healed up nicely with no bad results.

Fred Fangman went down to Columbus Monday and in the evening brought his son, Leander, home. The young man was operated on for appendicitis a couple of weeks ago and we are glad to state he is getting along in fine shape and will be able to be around as usual in a short time.

Dr. A. Cauley was taken seriously ill last Thursday evening with an attack of appendicitis. This being the third or fourth attack in the last few years and this one being of such a serious nature, an immediate operation was deemed advisable, so on Friday morning accompanied by Mrs. Cauley and Dr. W. M. Condon, he went to Omaha and was operated on that afternoon by Dr. A. P. Condon. We are glad to state that the Doctor went through the operation admirably, and is now getting along as well as could be expected, taking into consideration the seriousness of the case.

ALBION.
From the News.
John Peters left this morning for St. Louis, having received word of the death of his brother-in-law, who lived near there.

After several weeks without electric lights or power the current was turned on Tuesday afternoon from the new power house. Manager Brown has done exceedingly well to build and equip the new plant in the time that he has.

The winter wheat is looking fine and is reported filling nicely. Harvest and threshing is being started nicely in the southern counties of the state, and while the crop has been badly damaged in low localities, it is turning out around fifteen bushels to the acre. Oats are heading out and corn is growing as if it meant business.

David Primrose was appointed as County Commissioner last week to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Fryer. The law provides that in cases of this kind, the County Judge, County Treasurer and County Clerk shall appoint a man to fill the office until the next election. Mr. Primrose is one of the old settlers of Boone county, who has been eminently successful in his business affairs. He resides in the same locality as did Mr. Fryer.

GENOA.
From the Times.
The Misses Bessie and May Olson, spent Sunday at Columbus with their mother who is a patient at the St. Mary's hospital.

Mrs. Thomas Cain of St. Edward, was visiting among her Genoa friends Friday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Hazletta.

A terrible crime was committed in Albion a week ago last Sunday, and it is hoped that those who are elected to enforce the law will do all in their power to secure the death penalty for the guilty party. The Times has not learned the name of the party under arrest, but the crime he committed was selling a cigar on Sunday. Next to Fullerton, Albion is about as Puritanical a town as there is in America.

Word was received in Genoa Thursday morning that Charles Long, son of William Long, had expired suddenly at his home in Council Bluffs. The cause of his death was heart failure. Deceased was a resident of Genoa up to nine years ago when he went to work for the U. P. company as fireman, and at the time of his death had a run out of Council Bluffs as engineer. He leaves a wife and two sons, John and Charles.

SILVER CREEK.
From the Sand.
Misses Lucy and Winnie Davis returned Wednesday from a visit with their sister, Mrs. Mildred Brian, near Columbus.

Frank Shank, whose illness was mentioned last week by Sand, is on the mend. He has been a very sick man, but unless unforeseen complications arise, his early recovery is looked for.

Mrs. John Wanke was taken to the Columbus hospital Monday and on Wednesday underwent an operation which was performed very successfully. John and his sister Lillian were at Columbus at the time.

Lewis, son of Lincoln Shank, died Saturday, June 27, of heart disease. His body was interred in the cemetery at Beulah Wednesday, July 1, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. Services were held in the Beulah church, Rev. Swartwood officiating. Lincoln Shank, father of the boy, came all the way from Nevada, arriving here the morning of the funeral. Lewis was a bright boy, but has long been an invalid. He has many friends and his demise at the early age of 20 years caused sadness to those who knew him.

Rigid Rules Against Bringing Food Into Big Apartment Hotels.

If you live by the year in one of these fashionable apartment hotels that run a restaurant in connection with the rooms, you cannot take food into your quarters on peril of your life, says the New York Telegraph. There is a big uptown hotel, of the best class, whose leases provide that room leasers must eat in the restaurant. Many of them disregard this clause in their leases, and some of them openly took food into their apartments. This has been stopped by the manager, who has ordered that all baskets of provisions brought to the hostelry shall be turned back.

A lawyer told me that the hotel man was courting trouble—that a tenant in a hotel had a right to take anything in his room he pleased, so that he complied with the provision in his lease that he shall do no cooking in his apartment. Just the other day a man was caught bringing a bottle of milk into the front door and was requested to leave the place.

That reminds me of another uptown hotel which was filled with families and which had a rigid rule that no one should cook in an apartment. It became known, however, that the patrons of the place were cooking right along, and there was much sleuthing on the part of the management and employees to find out who the guilty ones were. The guiltiest man of the lot looked the most innocent, and in order to cover up his nefarious work he lodged a complaint with the manager, in vigorous language, that some one was cooking around the house, and that he was much disturbed by the smell of food.

This was in the afternoon, and that very night there was an odor of cooking all through the fifth floor. The manager got a porter and clerk, and a pass key. They traced the odor right down to one door and softly unlocked it and rushed in. There stood the man who had complained with a long fork in his hand and a glowing large pork sausage sizzle and fry in a pan over an oil-stove fire.

Explained to the Rector.
St. Thomas' Episcopal church in Fifth avenue has under its jurisdiction an East side chapel, says the New York Sun. One of the features of the chapel is a gymnasium, in which boys are trained in all the branches of physical culture. Some of the boys are quicker in this sort of training than they are in the more polite talk of the West side boys.

The rector of St. Thomas', Rev. Dr. Stires, visits the chapel frequently, and is fond of talking with the lads about their work. He said to one little fellow who hails from near the East river:

"Well, my son, they tell me you won quite a victory in your last contest with the boys of a rival school."

"I don't know 'bout that, but w'en we went up ag'in dat bunch from St. Pat's we put it all over 'em, and dey ain't never peaked since."

The rector patted him on the head and said: "My boy, you're all right."

"Dat's what I'm here for," was the quick reply.

Alfalfa Palace is Planned.

While "corn is king" alfalfa is undoubtedly "queen" in the western states and to his queen, King Corn is to build a palace in Omaha which will be one of the special features of the National Corn Exposition to be held there Dec. 9 to 19.

The "Alfalfa Palace" is being planned by the directors of the corn show because of the increasing interest in the crop and its growing importance as a food for cattle. The palace is to be built of bales of alfalfa and lined with exhibits of alfalfa and other grasses. Valuable premiums are to be offered for the best types of the alfalfa plant, and many grown will occupy hay presses and modern machines for baling the alfalfa.

Much attention is to be given alfalfa at the National Corn Exposition as it is now recognized that it is a necessary food for stock. The best authorities have demonstrated that cattle cannot use to advantage all the carbohydrates and oil in corn without a protein ration. It is a waste to feed straight corn to stock in preparing them for market, and the big packing houses are now paying better prices for the stock fattened on a mixture of corn and alfalfa.

Then the mixture is cheaper. Few feeders are still of the opinion that they can afford to feed straight corn worth 60 to 65 cents per bushel to cattle for which they receive from $5.50 to $6.00 at the outside. For this reason those interested in agriculture are to secure exhibits and give demonstrations of interest to every grower or feeder of alfalfa. When the big palace is opened at Omaha in December.

For Wet Sponge.
Almost every family has somewhere on hand an old hot water bottle that has been discarded on account of a slight leak. Cut out at the top to desired length, trim off ring at bottom, inclose this rubber bag in a sack made of daisy silkline or other material as desired, with a heading and drawstrings; secure with a few stitches around upper edge to prevent slipping, and you have a useful and inexpensive receptacle for sponge or wash cloth for traveling. It is superior to those found in the shops, and the open top is self-ventilating.

Tutti Frutti Shortcake.
Take two large bananas, two oranges sliced thin, one-half cup of cherries, half a cup of sugar. Put in a dish, set away for an hour, make a shortcake as for strawberries, split in two, spread the fruit on top and between the layers. Make a dressing of a pint of water, half a cup of granulated sugar, teaspoon and a half of cornstarch, bring to a boil, then set on the range to clear. Serve poured over the cake.

Pleasing for the Lecturer.
Elbert Hubbard says he was nearing the end of a lecture before 1,000 attentive inmates of a state insane asylum when an old woman came screaming down the aisle, waving her arms frantically.

"My God! I can't stand this nonsense any longer."

"That," said the superintendent to Mr. Hubbard, "is the first sign she has shown of returning sanity."
